Global Research, February 03, 2020

Dear Readers,

Global Research is a small team that believes in the power of information and analysis to bring about far-reaching societal change including a world without war. We are as committed as ever to the struggle for Peace, but we have hit some major financial hurdles over the past year. If we are to continue this journey we will need a steady flow of contributions from our readers in order to run the day to day operations of Global Research.

We recognize that times are tough for everyone and we are extremely grateful for every donation we receive, large or small. However, if you are in a position to make a large donation, now is the time to do so. Your support can make all the difference and help ensure Global Research lives to see another day, month, year, or decade!
