It was widely reported that the Democrats and Republicans finished one-two in the US presidential election on Tuesday, but the fact that the Libertarians finished in third and the Greens in fourth did not receive much coverage in the media.

Libertarian party candidate Gary Johnson finished in third place with over a million votes.

Green Party candidate Jill Stein finished in fourth with over 400,000 votes.

Virgil Goode of the Constitution Party finished in fifth place.

Peace and Freedom Party candidate Roseanne Barr finished in sixth place. Her running mate was anti-war activist Cindy Sheehan.

And Cindy SheehanRocky Anderson of the Justice Party finished in seventh.

Following is a chart of the results so far for the US presidential election.
