July 14, 2014 (Chile) - Verdad Ahora analyzed the positions of the United States, Israel and Turkey in regards to the emergence of the militant Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) as part of the Anglo-American project of sectarian division promoting the geopolitical reconfiguration of the Middle East.

An interview was conducted with sociologist Mahdi Darius Nazemroaya, researcher at the Centre for Research on Globalization (CRG) and columnist for the Strategic Culture Foundation.

Nazemroaya explains the US “Strategy of Redirection” and how it is tied into the development of ISIL. He also explains what the Yinon Plan is and the Western project to redraw the regional map with a “New Middle East.”
