(See below for notes on the music.)

The king's men
Have betrayed us
Tricked us out of
Our homes

No one else
Gonna save us
We must stand up
On our own

Divided
We've been conquered
For too long
We've played their game

United
We'd be invincible
So rise up
And shake off our chains

We've been fooled
By the banker
The sheriff
And the priest

We've been ruled
By the con man
The scoundrel
And the thief

Divided
We've been conquered
For too long
We've played their game

United
We'd be invincible
So rise up

And shake off our chains

Feel

The power

Streaming out

Through our souls [Note: if you're an atheist, think of it as our source of courage, or just change the last word to "soles"]

Now's

The hour

Come together

And let's roll

Here we are

In the meadow

It is time to

Decide

From afar

The army's nearing

Are we slaves or

Will we fight?

Divided

We've been conquered

For too long

We've played their game

United

We'd be invincible

So rise up

And shake off our chains

Feel

The power

Streaming out

Through our souls

Now's

The hour

And let's roll

Notes on the music: The drums are similar to U2's "Bloody Sunday", the guitar similar to U2 in some parts and the main riff from Little Steven's "Freedom" in other parts, and there are elements of Simple Minds' "Sanctify Yourself" or "Don't You Forget About Me" and - I know, I know - Led Zeppelin's "Whole Lotta Love".
