Introduction. Manufacturing Panics and Disasters

The dominant War Lords behind the rising onslaught of apocalyptic upheavals are very meticulous in some facets of their planning. Their Big Plans often involve the exploitation of manufactured disaster to generate panic, lots of panic.... panic meant to help destabilize, depopulate, and terrorize the general population. Often responses of panic and fear can be finessed to strip away any semblance of rationality.

This tactic for repressing reason and logic makes it much easier to manipulate large masses of terrified people as occurred on 9/11.

The business of manufacturing widespread panic attacks is thus becoming essential in the War Lords' accelerating process of reducing once-fairly-healthy populations into human rubble.

The political economy of packaged hysteria thrives on the fabrication or intensification of catastrophe.

Sometimes the strategy is to divert attention from the real catastrophes by building up the illusionary aura of fake catastrophes like climate change. Manufactured disasters include the outcome of the Directed Energy Weapons zapped at Maui. This outcome was spun as offering specious proof that climate change is ruining the planet.

Manufactured disasters also includes the massive toxic chemical fire ignited by murderous saboteurs after a train went off the tracks in East Palestine Ohio. Some of the derailed train cars carried dangerous loads that should have been carefully removed from the town site and then unloaded professionally at an appropriate facility. Instead the saboteurs purposely torched the toxic materials in East Palestine to create maximum contamination, murder and mayhem over a large region. This operation has all over it the finger prints of the most aggressive branch of the billionaire War Lords seeking their further aggrandizement at our expense.

Both The Maui and East Palestine events took place in 2023. What further surprises await us in the closing months of 2023? What does the academic calendar of 2023-24 hold in store? What might be this year's September Surprise as we embark on the teaching and learning cycle of 2023-23, a cycle when education is rapidly giving way to indoctrination for civilizational nullification.

Just as school starts in September, so too did the War on Terror. September of 2001 proved to be a propitious time for the perpetrators of the 9/11 crimes. The misrepresentation of the lies and crimes of 9/11 were sold to the public on the basis of a script largely authored by Orientalist operative, Bernard Lewis.

The late Bernard Lewis perfectly embodied the Zionist component in the imperial trajectory of the Anglo-American Empire. Throughout the twentieth century the UK and the US invested much political capital onto the rise of the Zionist movement to create and expand Israel. An academic Orientalist, Lewis moved into the intelligence apparatus of the United States from the Arab Bureau of British intelligence. As Edward Said has so compellingly explained, this imperial school of Orientalist experts was deeply involved in colonizing the Muslim and Arab peoples throughout Eurasia.

At the White House, Lewis coached National Security Adviser Zbigniew Brzezinski on the development and deployment of Arab mercenary armies with the goal of overturning the Soviet Union. That process gained traction in the decade culminating in 1989 when the Soviet puppet government in Afghanistan collapsed due to the military incursions of a US-recruited, trained, armed and backed mujahideen proxy army. A Saudi component of the mercenary force included CIA asset, Osama bin Laden.

The demise of the Soviet puppet government in Afghanistan helped hearten especially CIA-Vatican-backed Polish opponents of the Soviet regime. By 1991 the USSR was relegated to the dust heap of history while Lewis stayed on as the chief strategist in remaking the USA's Muslim allies into made-for-TV terrorist enemies. This process of demonizing Muslims served Israel's objective of furthering the Jewish State's heavy-duty exploitation of America's military muscle.

This history constitutes the background of Bernard Lewis' role in developing the Public Relations fable of al-Qaeda and bin Laden as personifications of "the West's" new post-9/11 enemy.

Lewis' goal in orchestrating the 9/11 fable was to produce an impactful example of the "clash of civilizations" he had successfully promoted as the new strategic paradigm to replace the bipolar dynamics of the Cold War. Like the 9/11 false flag, the implementation of this paradigm served many objectives but especially the agenda of cultivating the culture of never ending war to further enrich the world's richest people.

War is the biggest bonanza in the money-making strategies of the world's dominant banking cartels. Typically the top tier of bankers finance different sides in conflicts, This tactic helped set strategies for modern-day hedge funds.

The dominant bankers work closely with the war profiteers in running the supposedly US-led military-industrial complex.

Anxious to continue their dominating role in the US political economy, these death merchants needed a dramatic display of violence to illustrate the applicability of Lewis' clash-of-civilizations paradigm.

It is no coincidence, therefore, that the media's depiction of Arabs and Muslims after 9/11 was effective in turning public opinion in the direction of support for Israel's campaign to weaken, divide and dominate the predominantly Islamic populations of western Asia.

The bin Laden fable was sold to the public through the propaganda techniques developed and elaborated by Freud's nephew, Edward Bernays. Bernays' involvement extends from Goebbels' propaganda ministry in National Socialist Germany, to Madison Avenue PR, to covert warfare on behalf of United Fruit Company and the intelligence branches of the US Armed Forces. Edward Bernays helped cultivate the seeds of what would become the military-media complex of Silicon Valley currently dominated by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith.

In the Bernaysian tradition, the essence of the 9/11 hit job was to establish the existential basis for a huge and ongoing psychological operation whose overriding goal is to establish Zio-American omnipotence in the governance of the globe.

Creating Illusions While Destroying Evidence

On the bright sunny morning in Manhattan, an event soon named "9/11" ushered in a new era of accelerated civilizational decline. In the early hours of the disaster, Israeli agents were already spinning the story on the BBC of what the West's response should be. Ehud Barak, a former Israel prime minister, immediately proposed the mounting of a War on the Islamic Terror with Osama bin Laden as the leading target.

In retrospect, Barak's words can be viewed as directives describing what was about to come. In essence he was articulating the War Lords' instructions. These instructions were to be carried out immediately, without any authentic investigation whatsoever concerning what happened in September of 2001. To this day, the US government has never engaged in a serious and credible investigation of what transpired on 9/11. Why would they? So much is at stake and there is so much to hide.

In the absence of the willingness of countless of officials to do their jobs honestly, much investigation has been carried out by conscientious citizens seeking to stave off the dishonesty of the liars that govern us. We have come up with an extensive body of work supporting conclusions that have influenced hundreds of millions of independent-minded people around the world.

Generally speaking this informal constituency of nay sayers do not support the audacious fakery permeating the official story. There is a very big gap between the existing evidence and the official narrative woven in and around the hugely transformative event in twentieth century history.

Even as the events of 9/11 were still unfolding, the US government went into high gear to hide and destroy the evidence chronicling what happened.

Much of this rush to hide the truth of 9/11 was under the executive command of Michael Chertoff. Chertoff is a Zionist Jew with huge heft in the federal government. On 9/11 he was the official in charge of the US Justice Department's criminal division, including the FBI.

The officials under Chertoff were especially anxious to get rid of evidence contained in the remnants of the structural steel at ground zero. A careful analysis of the undisturbed steel left in place, could have explained much about the completely unprecedented free fall of three, steel-framed skyscrapers in Manhattan.

Most of the material content of these massive structures, the pride of American structural engineering, literally vanished into thin air due to intense vaporization and pulverization. The resulting spectacle offered a high-end display of technological wizardry the likes of which have never been seen before or since 9/11. Where did the enormous amount of energy come from in order to dramatize this stunning enactment of terrorism in action?

What kind of military technology was made available to the 9/11 culprits who pulled off the Hollywoodized extravaganza was set and largely prepared in the Wall Street district of Manhattan.

Certainly the bogus study that was done by NIST stands as a monument to the deeply fraudulent character of the government's pretend investigation of 9/11. The vaporization and pulverization of the World Trade Center towers simply could not have happened in the way the National Institute of Standards and Technology reported it did.

NIST's failure to tell the truth presents a telling illustration of the role of 9/11 in helping to collapse the stature and functionality of the once-dominant superpower. As the following video attests, NIST's perjury in sticking to the fraudulent script of the 9/11 fantasy, epitomizes the treasonous trashing of a crucial agency at the very nexus of American science, technology and industry. The best interests of the United States and its people were sacrificed to advance the interests of a foreign power.

In August 2016, Peter Michael Ketcham, a former employee of the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST), began looking into the reports his agency had released years earlier on the collapse of the World Trade Center. What he found shook him to the core. In this poignant half-hour interview, Peter Michael Ketcham tells his story of discovering that the organization where he had worked for 14 years had deliberately suppressed the truth about the most pivotal event of the 21st century.

Large amounts of the twisted WTC steel that escaped being vaporized and pulverized were quickly hauled off to China to be transformed into battle ships and such. The lies and crimes were covered over in the post-9/11 era in countless ways. Decisions large and small were made in order to put obstacles in the way of those seeking to answer the question: What really happened on 9/11?

The flurry of coordinated erasure under the oversight of the Justice Department and FBI extended to the destruction Air Traffic Controllers tapes and to the imposition of Soviet-style “minders” to prevent federal officials involved in the matter from going on record with their own testimony. Moreover, many types of video records documenting both the events of 9/11 and the related interrogations, have been made to disappear.

The same is true of paper transcripts and other incriminating evidence dumped by the triumphant conspirators into the 9/11 memory hole. At the same time the US national security state went into high gear to use excruciating torture of human beings as a means of extracting false evidence to back up the bogus official narrative.

See this and this.

Like many officials involved in the crackdown on truth and government accountability, Michael Chertoff was rewarded in 2005 by being made head of the then-new Homeland Security Dept., an agency created on the basis of the supposed “lessons learned” from 9/11. In this position Chertoff accused those who questioned his leading role in facilitating and misrepresenting the 9/11 debacle as being very similar to “Holocaust Deniers.”

The terrorist entrepreneur exploited his influence on government policy by selling airport security equipment developed by the Chertoff Group. In other words, he cynically cashed in on the transformation of rights-bearing citizens into terrorist suspects subject to the arbitrary rule of our invisible and unaccountable governors.

Along with the specious interpretation of the events of 9/11 came a new stage in pulverizing our remaining freedoms and civil liberties as well as the remnants of our hollowed out democracies. A permanent State of Emergency was declared, one that continues to this day with added layers of toxic Covidian pseudo-law.

This retreat away from the checks and balances of constitutional governance secured even tighter Zionist control over the operations of the Anglo-American war machine and its propaganda branches. The misrepresentation of the 9/11 false flag initiated a period of US-led wars for Israel. These Zionist wars were mostly directed at Muslim-majority countries like Afghanistan, Iraq, Libya, Syria and Somalia.

The War on Terror and the War on Truth

There is much scanty evidence of a large elaborate Israeli spy ring operating invasively throughout the United States prior to 9/11. There is also evidence of Mossad agents put in place to record the hits on the Twin Towers. These agents were employees of Israeli-run trucking companies in the New York/New Jersey area, companies that were well placed to transport goods required to wire the Twin Towers for controlled demolition.

Surprisingly Rupert Murdoch's FOX news began to break the story of the Israeli spy rings involved in 9/11. Then the network backtracked but not without doing enough reporting to make it clear that the Jewish, Israeli and neocon facet of the 9/11 debacle is undeniable and deep.

There is a very large literature debunking the obscenely stupid and outright insulting official explanation of what happened on 9/11. Who really believes the ridiculous fable any more of Osama bin Laden as "the mastermind of 9/11"? Bernard Lewis must be having a good laugh in his grave.

Much of this skeptical literature evades any direct reckoning with the Zionist role in the debacle. The people behind the 9/11 crime have lots of means at their disposal to intimidate, damage and deplatform those that do the necessary investigations. The citizen investigations became necessary because of the treasonous avoidance by those whose job it is to enforce the law and defend the United States from foreign subversion.

Laurent Guyénot is one of those who have stepped up to the the plate where those possessed of profession responsibility and scholarly integrity do their stuff. I conclude with a link to Guyénot's essay, "9/11 Was an Israeli Job."
