According to Hal Turner Radio Show, Russia issued the following NOTAM Bulletin:

KAPUSTIN YAR - TONIGHT 11:00 PM EST THRU 11-30-2024.

For details see this Hal Turner Radio Show - BULLETIN: RUSSIA ISSUES NOTAM - KAPUSTIN YAR - TONIGHT 11:00 PM EST THRU 11-30-2024.

Untypically, this warning was issued in English, basically saying that between 26 and 30 November 2024, Russia may hit again. This time one or several NATO bases - see the charts provided in the link.

How quickly can the Oreshnik missile reach US bases in the Middle East?

How quickly can the Oreshnik missile reach US bases in the Pacific and Alaska?

Distance and flight time from Kamchatka:

- US Air Base in Alaska:
2,400 km, 12 minutes
- US Air Force and Navy Base in Guam:
4,500 km, 22 minutes
- US Air Force and Navy Bases in Pearl Harbor:
5,100 km, 25 minutes

It indicates that Russia may hit somewhere, probably because of what NATO has been saying, and what Sebastian Gorka said. Mr. Gorka is Donald Trump's controversial choice for counterterrorism. Speaking for the Trump Administration, he said something to the extent, what Biden supplied to Ukraine will pale in comparison of what they [the incoming Trump Administration] will give [to Ukraine].

That may be for purposes of [stupid] propaganda and negotiations, but can Russia take the risk?

Besides, Trump has been saying throughout his presidential campaign that he would stop weapons supply to Ukraine. Why would he change his promise now, just as Russia shows they are dead serious and mean it, by launching on 21 November 2024 a state of the art, high energy Mach-10 medium- to long-range (IRBM [inter-regional] / ICBM [intercontinental Ballistic Missile]), multi-headed missile, called Oreshnik ('Hazel'), into Dnipro, Ukraine, to destroy a weapon-manufacturing plant and military base?

According to Mr. Putin, it was a warning and test run of their latest technology in military equipment. The west / NATO was warned 30 minutes ahead of the launching.

Western commentators called it a Russian bluff.

Oreshnik can easily be converted into an ICBM and could hit anywhere in the US and Europe. Oreshnik may be used as a non-nuclear high energy [mega-destructive and pulverizing] tactical weapon, but it could as well be equipped with one or more nuclear warheads.

Within 30 to 60 minutes, it could destroy several NATO bases around the world.

The fact that Kiev is shooting long-range western (US, UK/French) missiles deep into Russian territory, means that NATO has converted the proxy war into a direct war between NATO and Russia.

What this could mean and become is anybody's guess.

With NATO's pride and incalculable arrogance, any Russian counter-attack, preventive and non-nuclear, to be sure, could trigger a NATO retribution directly on Russia, maybe Moscow. Russia would be ready with one or several ICBM Oreshnik, remote guided 10-Mach missiles, loaded with or without tactical nuclear war heads, directed at NATO bases anywhere.

That would be the final escalation of WWII that started already with the Maidan Coup in Kiev, in February 2014, by admission of Jens Stoltenberg, former Secretary-General of NATO.

As Fyodor Lukyanov, editor-in-chief of RT in Global Affairs, says, the breakdown of Russia-NATO diplomatic negotiations, leading to a standoff over Ukraine, is increasingly becoming a direct confrontation between Russia and NATO, raising serious concerns about the risk of nuclear escalation. We can just hope this will not happen. NATO and Russia will come to their senses.

War is just the ultimate money and power-generating mechanism to kill and destroy.

But those who hope for a double whammy - by destroying and rebuilding - doubling the profit scam, maybe wrong, reconstruction capacity may be demolished for quite a while to come.

We MUST hope, pray and be convinced that as humans we can avoid war. Together we can. By spiritual connection, not even knowing who else is part of "together" around the globe.

Reviews

“This book is a ‘must’ resource – a richly documented and systematic diagnosis of the supremely pathological geo-strategic planning of US wars since ‘9-11’ against non-nuclear countries to seize their oil fields and resources under cover of ‘freedom and democracy’.”

-John McMurtry, Professor of Philosophy, Guelph University

“In a world where engineered, pre-emptive, or more fashionably “humanitarian” wars of aggression have become the norm, this challenging book may be our final wake-up call.”

-Denis Halliday, Former Assistant Secretary General of the United Nations

Michel Chossudovsky exposes the insanity of our privatized war machine. Iran is being targeted with nuclear weapons as part of a war agenda built on distortions and lies for the purpose of private profit. The real aims are oil, financial hegemony and global control. The price could be nuclear holocaust. When weapons become the hottest export of the world’s only superpower, and diplomats work as salesmen for the defense industry, the whole world is recklessly endangered. If we must have a military, it belongs entirely in the public sector. No one should profit from mass death and destruction.

-Ellen Brown, author of ‘Web of Debt’ and president of the Public Banking Institute
