Anthony Freda's award-winning illustration was spotted by people at The University of Queensland in Australia, who contacted him about licensing the image for a conference and publication titled “Conflict in History.”

“Apparently, the conference committee became embroiled in a heated fight over the image,” says Anthony. “In the end, they said my art was ‘pushing academic boundaries.’ Interesting to me that a conference about war feels a fairly mild visual representation of war is too provocative...”
