According to CTV News: “Sunday afternoon, counter-protesters were still blocking Elgin Street to northbound vehicles. Police eventually closed Elgin Street and the Metcalfe off-ramp from the westbound Queensway.”

Trudeau’s Counter-Offensive

A “mass movement” of Ottawa citizens in support of Justin Trudeau.

Not more than 30 frustrated protesters accusing the Ottawa Police of “Colluding with Terrorists”.

And the media applauds.

“Authoritative” CBC Report

The counter protest movement “appears to be growing” according to the CBC:

As an ongoing protest against COVID-19 public health measures continues through its third weekend, resistance from Ottawa residents appears to be growing.

Counter protests began on Saturday, with hundreds marching through Ottawa’s Glebe neighbourhood, and continued Sunday morning as a group of people blocked a major intersection to prevent a number of vehicles from joining the main protest downtown.

The impromptu blockade began to form on Sunday morning at about 9 a.m., when roughly 20 residents stepped into the intersection at Bank Street and Riverside Drive.

My Question to Trudeau. Do you have the Support of the Canadian People?

1,4 million residents in the Greater Ottawa-Gatineau Metropolitan area. According to reports, a couple of hundred residents showed up.

And only “20 residents stepped into the intersection on Bank and Riverside Drive”.

And another 30 residents blocked Elgin at Argyle. (as reported by CTV)

Wow.

How Many Canadians will Vote for Justin Trudeau?

Another relevant question. Do you have support within the Liberal Caucus?

Several Liberal members of Parliament support the Freedom Convoy. Alberta and Saskatchewan have scrapped the “Vaccine Passport”:

A backbench lawmaker from Justin Trudeau’s own caucus is accusing the prime minister of dividing and stigmatizing Canadians by politicizing vaccine mandates and Covid-19 restrictions. (Politico)
