

Increasingly Desperate Deep State - One Step Away from Checkmate

Those global despots, united by their common hatred of sentient humanity, do not actually hold the power. Do not have control of the life force, nor the means to get that control.

All their cards are stacked on winning a psychological battle for the human mind. But everyday that veneer of omnipotence is getting thinner; more transparent; more discordant.

They are unable to play their 'master-stroke', because they realise that if they make that move it will lead to their own extermination.

They cannot alter the universal karmic law that every action brings about its equal and opposite reaction - so they have to work via perception controlling acts of stealth that get mankind to take the actions on their behalf.

This is the key to the success of their deceiving methodology. They - the less than human dark energies - have no creative ability of their own. They cannot actually 'do' anything. But they can trick humanity into doing their bidding for them.

The despotic architects of control operate via an energetic connection with those non human dark energies residing outside the three dimensional fields that preoccupy the majority of mankind.

Their capacity for domination is entirely dependent upon the existence of this symbiotic relationship.

The entire see-sawing drama of existence pivots around a clash between the dark tricksters powers to deceive and the good humans power to resist and expose these deceptions.

The stage is thus set for a titanic struggle, the essence of which involves 'we mankind' realising - in large enough numbers - that we allowed ourselves to be comprehensively tricked into acting according to a script written and directed by the great deceivers for the great deceivers.

What I am going to report today is that that realisation is growing faster than the ability of the dark side to stifle it.

The deceivers no longer go to the trouble of making covert moves on the global chess board. They have gone overt and their raw arrogance has had the affect of shocking sentient humans on a deeper level than previously experienced.

Due to this a strange common power of mind is moving amongst a steadily expanding percentage of the population. The message therein is

“We are the true masters of the chessboard of life on earth, the moment has come to exert our God given powers of self motivated resistance and rebirth.”

Those who try to deceive humanity into believing that it is incapable of being anything more than a game devised entirely for their own ends, are losing confidence in their ability to hold in check a rising tide of the collective unconscious of humanity.

They had thought that they had all the moves on the chessboard covered. They thought that blanket coverage of death and destruction, chaos, immorality, bestiality and a narcissistic infatuation with selfish self interest - would be enough to drive humanity into a state of abject slavery and submission to their every demand.

That by subjecting the population to a daily diet of fear based doomsday predictive planning and mass mind control, any remaining will to resist would be crushed into irreversible surrender.

But what this unprecedented attack on human life ultimately did was to invoke a massive karmic reaction. A reaction of equal and opposite proportions to that which was intended.

So, instead of finally destroying the inherent spirit of resistance embedded in human nature, an extraordinary reversal is to result. A reversal in which the relentless suppression of instincts which, when unrestricted, exude and expresses warmth, generosity and compassion - would finally backfire on its perpetrators.

The unpredicted backlash will be tsunami-like. Previously cock-sure, arrogant tyrants of the world stage will have the sensation of having the sand sucked out from under their feet. They will no longer be able to keep their balance or continue to articulate sentences based on well rehearsed strings of lies.

In desperation, they will turn to the military to shoot any citizen who refuses to follow their orders for a complete emergency lock-down.

But the military also finds itself possessed of a new sense of purpose - a loyalty to the people - and will not comply. Instead holding the perpetrators in detention centres especially built to incarcerate the freedom loving resistance.

Such a form of checkmate for the architects of control draws ever closer. It is simmering out of sight just around the corner.

However the tail of the wounded dragon thrashes mercilessly and consequently all of life is thrown into disarray. A prelude to the great turning whose energies are already seeping into the fissures spreading through the dying monster.

Our job - we 'humanity' - is to now make the critical moves that will tip the balance in favour of achieving an unprecedented victory for the forces of justice, truth and wisdom. The full liberation and emancipation of mankind, leading to the same for the animal kingdom and all of nature.

The final moves of checkmating the architects of our oppression are our responsibility, our mission in the external world.

Once committed to taking actions that will fulfill this challenge, the unseen higher forces will flood us with the necessary energetic powers to complete this great task.

Have no doubt about this. Don't waste an ounce of energy in contemplating failure.

For truth and justice to prevail on the global stage we must also commit to making them prevail in our individual lives.

The inner and the outer are complementary reflections of one dynamic, one supreme goal.

Everything we do must lean into the rising wind of change, must turn our bodies and minds into proud prows of great ships, forever plunging forward into the heaving waves that try to knock us back.

That is the way to become great. And we should all want to become great. To release that infinite potential smouldering like a volcano just under the surface of a futile attempt to fit into the deadly mediocrity of the political status quo.

Although a Cimmerian darkness abounds – the hour of our greatest victory is at hand.

We are gathering together our collective energies whose combined forces will sweep aside all who seek to block the resurgent life force from fulfilling its deepest and most sacred physical, mental and spiritual liberation.

Show the darkness your true light. Become fearless victors of the one true fight.
