The Voice of Russia has published an article entitled “British agents in Russia instructed to find Snowden - Canadian NGO”

http://voiceofrussia.com/news/2013_12_05/British-intelligence-agents-in-Russia-instructed-to-find-Snowden-Canadian-NGO-3126/where it states that:

“The British intelligence MI-6 station in Moscow has been given the task of locating former US intelligence contractor, Edward Snowden, who was granted temporary political asylum in Russia, says the Center for the Study of Globalization, a Canadian non-governmental organization based in Montreal.”

We wish to clarify that this does not refer to the Center for Research on Globalization (CRG) and nobody in our research center held an interview with the Voice of Russia regarding this matter.

We have requested a clarification from the Voice of Russia.
