Putin's inaction continues to widen the conflict.

The British "are actually directly involved in this [Ukraine] conflict." — Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov

Washington and France prepare world for NATO entering Ukraine conflict. US Defense Secretary tells Congress that "if Ukraine falls, I genuinely believe NATO will be fighting Russia" (see this).

Putin continues to convince Washington that Russia is a paper tiger. Putin admits that Washington is trying to tear Russia apart but he remains open for dialogue with Washington "whose leaders are openly taking hostile actions against us." (See this)

German army discussed strike on Crimean Bridge, see this.

The Kremlin continues its state of reality denial by prolonging the conflict.
