The impact of a missile on a football field located in the Golan Heights resulting in 12 deaths, mostly children and young Druze, would be an alleged attack of false flag of Israel that would serve as a pretext for Netanyahu to invade Lebanon.

Biden-Netanyahu Agreement? After meeting Netanyahu in the White House with Biden, the still President communicated to Netanyahu the need to “overcome outstanding differences” with the Islamic Resistance Movement (Hamas) to achieve a ceasefire agreement that would allow for the release of hostages and an end to the war in the Gaza Strip”. Biden also reaffirmed his support for the security of Israel against “Iran and its associated militias”, including Hamas, the Lebanese Shiite militia party Hezbollah to the Houthi rebels in Yemen.

The Biden administration is desperately trying to get a Netanyahu declaration of “an indefinite truce”.

The Israeli government has called for a ceasefire to be established, which would allow the exchange of Jewish hostages still in Hamas’ hands and restore the movement of humanitarian aid trucks for more than one million Palestinians confined in Rafah.

Thus, Biden would be a major diplomat and would wash his image of “necessary collaborator of Israel in the ethnic cleansing of Gaza” and would allow him to go down in history as the peacemaker of Gaza as well as making it easier for Democratic candidate Harris to regain lost votes from the left wing of the Democrats and the voters African-American and Arab people.

Such an agreement would benefit both leaders and would consist of the total withdrawal of the Israeli army from Gaza that will remain as a demilitarized zone under the control of UN blue helmets, with which Lebanon would now be the target of Israel.

So, after the end of the Gaza campaign, Netanyahu with the blessings of the United States, would have decided to invade southern Lebanon in order to displace some 400,000 inhabitants across the Litani River; hoping to buy time until the foreseeable victory in November of a Donald Trump, in the certainty that he can count on his blessings to exonerate him from all guilt before the International Criminal Court.

False Flag Attack on the Golan?

The Israeli army reported on 27 July that a missile had hit a football pitch in the Golan Heights, killing 11 people, presumably all children and young people.

The IDF blamed the attack on the Hezbollah, but Mohamad Afif, the head of the group's media office, denied that it had "any connection with the incident in Majdal".

Such a false flag attack would, however, be the pretext for launching an invasion of Lebanon. Thus, the Israeli Foreign Minister, Israel Katz, declared to Channel 12 that "the moment of a total war against Hezbollah is approaching" and the head of Defense, Yoav Gallant, advanced "that we will attack the enemy hard".

The aforementioned agreement between Biden and Netanyahu will also include the sending to Israel of about 1,800 bombs weighing 907 kilos and 1,700 bombs weighing 226 kilos in order to destroy South Lebanon and move its 400,000 people across the Litani River and create a security ring for Israeli settlements. However, such an invasion could mean the beginning of a major regional conflict that will mark the future of the area in the coming years and which would be the lifeline for Netanyahu who would evade pending trials and possible charges of crimes against humanity against the Gaza population.

Will Iran be the Next Target of the U.S.- Zionist Axis?

According to the secret agreement reached between Biden and Netanyahu, the CIA and Israeli Mossad would prepare similar false flag attacks in the Persian Gulf, after attributing their authorship to the Iranians. Taking advantage of the consequent Iranian response, the American Congress will declare a state of war. This process is known as "statutory authorization" and it is a prerequisite for President Biden to be able to enforce the 1973 War Powers Act, which authorizes him to send troops overseas.

So, taking advantage of the fact that Russia is occupied with Ukraine, China surrounded by the AUKUS nuclear crisis arc to protect Taiwan and that the US strategic reserves are at maximum, the Pentagon will use a surprise attack by Israel on Iran to start a new war in the Middle East with the dual objective of drying up China's energy sources and setting up the cartography of the New Middle East.
