An Imminent Threat to Canadian National Sovereignty

At this time, both the United Nations and the Trudeau regime are deploying major efforts against us. Their desperation to finalize their global domination stems from their responsibility for horrific crimes, for which they deserve the most stringent and comprehensive justice. The world remains unsafe as long as they are free and continue to wield control over the vast wealth and power gained through their wrongdoing.

The current mechanism through which the Canadian Federal Government is working to comply with the one-world government takeover is Bill C-293, the so-called “Act Respecting Pandemic Prevention and Preparedness.” Much like four years ago, the World Economic Forum, WHO, and the UN are once again using their strong influence over our government to push Canadians toward a global dictatorship under the guise of public health; this time, much worse.

Hey Kim,

Are you aware of Bill c-293? This bill grants an astonishing range of powers to the Minister of Health, with virtually no limits to its reach or authority. The scope of control being handed over is extraordinary. The Senate reconvenes on September 17, and there's a possibility that the bill could be passed during the second reading.

As Canadians, it's our responsibility to stay informed about significant developments like this one. Please review the information in the link and share it with others.
