The minute the first Covid case appeared the US Medical Establishment began lying through its teeth and is yet to utter one truthful word.

The entire big money vaccination campaign is based on the lie that there are no cures. The asserted absence of cures is the only reason for the emergency use of an untested and unapproved experimental vaccine. The use of HCQ and Ivermectin has been prevented by protocols established by NIH, CDC, and WHO.

By false assertion of “public health authorities”—read shills for Big Pharma—there are no cures. But President Trump was cured by one—monoclonal antibodies. As of August 21, 2021, Governor Ron DeSantis has opened 15 monoclonal antibody clinics in Florida with more opening this week. See this.

As evidence of cures pours in, the justification for emergency use of the experimental Covid Vaccine disappears. The panicked medical establishment with its imposed and false protocols is demanding full approval of the vaccine before the required testing is complete and despite the obvious failure of the vaccine. Otherwise, the vaccination marketing campaign grinds to a stop, leaving the secret agendas unserved.

We can't have that, so the dangerous experimental vaccine must be approved so it can continue to be mandated and the secret health-unrelated agendas served.

By exposing the Covid Deception, DeSantis has painted a target on his back. A corrupt medical establishment, so determined to vaccinate all and follow up with endless booster shots that it denied sick and dying people known cures and fired and took away licenses of doctors who used the known cures to save lives, is not going to take lightly their exposure as frauds by DeSantis. Expect any day to have the prostitute scum at the Washington Post, NPR, or CNN produce women accusing DeSantis of sexual abuse, or the crazed New York Times to accuse DeSantis of being a Russian agent and working with Cuba to discredit the CDC and NIH, or the FBI to bring false corruption charges, or Democrats in the state legislature to open an investigation of misappropriation of funds. The American Establishment has ZERO tolerance for truth-tellers and for anyone who gets in the way of its self-serving agendas.

Are Floridians intelligent enough to protect their governor who kept their state open and free? Probably not.
