Sooner or later, the war criminals will realize that their sadistic tortures and inhumane conditions in their maximum-security prisons are not helping them in covering up their crimes which have been exposed universally by Julian Assange.

Ironically, for every minute that Assange is unjustly kept in confinement; one person stands up in support of him and joins the Assange defense movement around the world.

Free Julian Assange!

He is a brave truth-teller, an innocent journalist and a loving father of two beautiful children.

Let him be with his family during this pernicious coronavirus pandemic.
