

Georgia's ex-president Shevardnadze against U.S bases in his country

By Global Research

Global Research, September 27, 2009

Voice of Russia 27 September 2009

Region: Russia and FSU

Theme: US NATO War Agenda

Georgia's ex-President Eduard Shevardnadze has slammed the potential deployment of U.S. military bases in Georgia as inexpedient.

At a press conference in Tbilisi on Saturday, he said Georgia would gain nothing from it.

He was speaking in response to speculations in the media that Washington is willing to discuss future military deployments with Tbilisi.

There has been no immediate comment from the Georgian government.

The original source of this article is Voice of Russia

Copyright © Global Research, Voice of Russia, 2009

Comment on Global Research Articles on our Facebook page

Become a Member of Global Research

Articles by: Global Research

Disclaimer: The contents of this article are of sole responsibility of the author(s). The Centre for Research on Globalization will not be responsible for any inaccurate or incorrect statement in this article. The Centre of Research on Globalization grants permission to cross-post Global Research articles on community internet sites as long the source and copyright are acknowledged together with a hyperlink to the original Global Research article. For publication of Global Research articles in print or other forms including commercial internet sites, contact: publications@globalresearch.ca www.globalresearch.ca contains copyrighted material the use of which has not always been specifically authorized by the copyright owner. We are making such material available to our readers under the provisions of "fair use" in an effort to advance a better understanding of political, economic and social issues. The material on this site is distributed without profit to those who have expressed a prior interest in receiving it for research and educational purposes. If you wish to use copyrighted material for purposes other than "fair use" you must request permission from the copyright owner.

For media inquiries: publications@globalresearch.ca