Dear Readers,

We live in a world rife with unspoken truths. One such truth is the danger of a war in which nuclear weapons could be used.

Another unspoken truth is that selling the idea of such a war to the general public would not be possible without the help of media lies:

At Global Research, our goal is to try to redress the balance as best we can by presenting you with “media truths”. With so much of what is presented to us as “news” by the mainstream media being coopted, an independent news source is imperative now more than ever.

As you may have noticed, we have been struggling to make ends meet for over a year now. Our financial situation is still precarious, but we are happy to say that we have noted some recent improvement thanks to your support. To truly secure the future of GlobalResearch.ca, we still need your help. Can you contribute to redressing the balance by making a donation or becoming a member?

We understand that times are tough for everyone. If a financial contribution is not something you can currently envision, but you would like to help out, please see below for details on becoming a Global Research Volunteer...

With measures being put in place to reduce our reach (such as tacit online censorship of independent media) there are a number of ways you can help us make sure that the questions we ask continue to be heard:

- Establish an email list of some fifty friends and family and forward the Global Research Newsletter and/or your favourite Global Research articles to this list on a daily basis.
 - Use the various instruments of online posting and social media creatively to “spread the word”. Click the “like” and “share” buttons on our article pages for starters.
 - Post one or more Global Research articles to internet discussion groups and blogs to build a dialogue around the subject matters we cover.
 - Do you have friends who would benefit from our articles? Consider signing them up for our daily newsletter.
 - Are you part of a community group or organized discussion group? Submit a topic we have covered or a specific article from our website for discussion at your next meeting.

WE THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING INDEPENDENT MEDIA!
