Global Research, December 27, 2023

It is, once again, the most wonderful time of the year!

Many things to be grateful for in 2023 — chief among them is your indefatigable support for Global Research’s publication.

To our authors and readers, THANK YOU... (cue in Jose Feliciano) from the bottom of our hearts! 🎵

We believe that open access to truthful information and nuanced reporting is a #GiftThatKeepsOnGiving. That is why we strive hard to deliver it to you not just during this season but all year-round.

Books are another #GiftThatKeepsOnGiving, which is why we are committed to publishing eBooks that are free of charge. Only accessible in the desktop version, our eBooks are located on the left-hand of our homepage under the banner “Global Research E-books.”

We also offer PDF books at a low price, a perfect gift idea for fellow truth-seekers this Christmas!

Our wish for 2024 is to maintain our value as an independent source of news and analyses. Our online reach is crucial to the dissemination of truth. What is ultimately at stake is the value of human life and the future of humanity.

In this regard, we ask you, our very own Santa, to help us overcome the effects of Big Tech censorship by:

1. Forwarding the daily Global Research Newsletter and/or your favorite Global Research articles to your family, friends, and respective communities;
2. Using the various instruments of online posting and social media to “spread the word.” Click the “like” and “share” buttons on our articles’ pages for starters. Help keep our articles circulating; and
3. Encouraging family and friends to sign up for our newsletter (click here for sign-up form).

Moreover, kindly consider donating and/or becoming a member to help us meet our running costs:
