

Global Research: Information and Analysis for Societal Change

By The Global Research Team

Global Research, July 24, 2019

Global Research is a small team that believes in the power of information and analysis to bring about far-reaching societal change. With tensions mounting all over the world, we are more committed than ever to the struggle for Peace and the preservation of life on earth, but we have hit some major financial hurdles over the past year.

We do not accept support from private foundations, which seek to control and manipulate the independent news media. Instead, our news coverage comes from a multitude of perspectives to ensure you get the true big picture of what's happening in the world.

At present we are struggling to meet our monthly costs and are in fact running a deficit. If each of our readers made a donation, or took out a membership with us, we would be well on our way to remedying the situation. Can you help us by becoming a member or making a donation?
