

Global Research March Referral Campaign

By The Global Research Team

Global Research, March 03, 2023

We will never grow tired of expressing our gratitude to you, our readers, for supporting us in our monthly endeavors.

For the entire month of March, our campaign will revolve around the act of censorship committed against Global Research.

We have repeatedly shared how the Big Tech continues to target us and conspire to drag us into the abyss. Excluding our articles from external search engines, shadowbanning our social media profiles, and placing malicious labels on our links are among the most detrimental schemes directed against us.

Amid all the struggles we've encountered, it remains our objective to maintain our independence, accepting neither corporate nor government funding.

So, we need your help to keep us afloat. In this referral campaign, our ask is for you to do any of the following:

- If you have blog sites, crosspost Global Research articles;
- Forward Global Research articles through email and other communication apps;
- Share Global Research articles on social media and discussion groups;
- Stay updated with important world events, subscribe to our newsletter and encourage family, friends and colleagues to do the same.

It is our hope to continue our mission until genuine peace is on the horizon. Until then, let us work together.
