

Global Research Online Campaign: Spread the Truth Like Wildfire!

By The Global Research Team

Global Research, October 25, 2023

Dear Readers,

For 22 years, Global Research has been publishing daily content — on the world’s most pressing issues — that is easily and freely accessible. As it has always been our longstanding objective for the “unspoken truth” to reach a broad audience, it is our promise to never put our publication behind a paywall.

However, in an era of disinformation and declining media integrity, Global Research has been the object of smears and censorship, which affect our online visibility and social media engagement. Hence, we urge you to grab any available means that will help us beat the odds and sustain our online presence.

In particular, we encourage you to

- forward GR articles via email and other communication apps;
- crosspost GR articles on your websites and/or blogs;
- post and share GR articles on social media and internet discussion groups; and
- subscribe to our daily newsletter, free of charge.

For those who have the capacity to help us meet our running costs, you may click on the links below to become a member or make a donation. We appreciate your generosity.
