Global Research, February 24, 2020

Dear Readers,

We are greatly indebted to all of you who have dug deep and come to our aid during this challenging period for Global Research. We may not be on dry land yet, but the support shown certainly puts wind in our sails.

Our aim in this campaign is simply to meet our running costs and put an end to the monthly deficit we are faced with. We are confident we can reach that goal, but only with your help. We are very grateful to those who have donated or become members so far, we now ask the many thousands of our daily readers who have not done so yet to consider clicking below and lending us your support:
