

Global Research Strives for Peace

By The Global Research Team

Global Research, April 09, 2019

Dear Global Research Readers,

This is a year of change. Alliances are shifting, loyalties changing, and inaccurate and misleading comments are ripe, everywhere we look. Questions need to be asked – and answered – of political demagogues, controlling institutions, and news reporting with dubious patronage.

Global Research strives for peace. We act as a global platform allowing the voices of dissent, protest, on-the-ground reporters and academics to be heard and disseminated internationally. We need to stand together to continuously fight back against corrupt politicians, media lies, and the suppression of independent thought.

Stronger together: your donations are crucial to independent, comprehensive news reporting

Our main goal in this fundraising campaign is simply to meet our running costs and put an end to the monthly deficit we are faced with as a result of mounting online censorship. We are making good progress and we are confident we can reach that goal, but only with your help. To make a donation or become a member, please click below now:
