Global Research, February 03, 2022

Big Tech in coordination with Big Pharma is categorically zeroing in on dissidents who are critical of the official COVID-19 narrative.

Independent voices are the object of censorship, shadowban and smear campaigns. If these voices get silenced, it will be too late; the lie will have defeated the truth.

Despite the ongoing censorship by the search engines directed against Global Research, our readership is expanding thanks to the support of our readers.

We are deeply indebted to a myriad of courageous authors, scholars and investigative journalists for their indefatigable undertakings. By doing any of the actions below, you are helping us spread the word:

- Establish an email list of some friends and family and forward the daily Global Research Newsletter and/or your favourite Global Research articles to this list on a daily basis.

- Invite friends and family to subscribe to our daily newsletter.
- Challenge the censorship procedures conducted by the search engines.
- Use the various instruments of online posting and social media creatively. Click the “like” and “share” buttons on our article pages for starters.
- Post one or more Global Research article/s on partner websites, internet discussion groups and blogs to build a dialogue around our coverage.

Help us pull you out of the rabbit hole of deception.

Thank you very much for supporting independent media!
