Global Research, July 29, 2019

The situation for independent media has changed significantly over the past few years, and not for the better. Despite this, in the face of large corporations attempting to censor our content and curtail our traffic and revenue, we are still here – largely thanks to you, our core readership.

Your feedback tells us that Global Research continues to be a vital source of information in today's rapidly changing world. We thank you, and pledge that we will continue to deliver the cutting-edge research and insight that you have come to rely on.

We have made some progress in our campaign to meet our running costs and put an end to our monthly deficit, but we still need your help. As grateful as we are to those who have given so far, the total number of donations and membership subscriptions we have received over the past year still only amounts to a very small fraction of the tens of thousands of people who read our website on a daily basis.
