

Help Sustain Global Research in the Battle against Online Censorship

By The Global Research Team

Global Research, June 16, 2022

Global Research extends our thanks to our readers for your continued support over the last few years.

We have intimated the issue of online censorship and how it affects our readership. Unfortunately, this diabolical act of curtailing free speech is in the heat.

In this context, with a view to sustaining our endeavours, we ask our readers to help us reach as many people as possible (forwarding, referral of GR articles to friends and colleagues, crossposts, social media, etc).

We send two newsletters during a weekday and on on the weekend. We are active on social media. We are doing our best to circumvent all forms of censorship but only an army of readers and supporters can get us through it.

- Crossposting Global Research articles on your blog sites,
- Forwarding Global Research articles to emails lists,
- Sharing Global Research articles on social media,
- Bringing the Globalresearch.ca Newsletter to the attention of friends and colleagues,
- Use the translate template on the top of our website to reproduce Global Research in as many foreign languages
- And more

If you have the means, you can also help us continue with our mission through donation and membership.
