

Is “Lying” a Money Making Activity?

By The Global Research Team

Global Research, February 26, 2019

Dear Readers,

Lying is a a money making activity and lies are commodities. There is a profitable global market for those committed to spreading disinformation.

Needless to say, “Telling the Truth” Is Not a Money-Making Proposition. Independent online analysis of US-led wars, rampant corruption, corporate greed, civil rights and fraudulent monetary transactions is an increasing target of online suppression and tacit censorship, our content often relegated to the bottom rung of search engine results. As a result we presently do not cover our monthly running costs which could eventually jeopardize our activities.

We have 1.9 million page views a month and just over 50,000 subscribers to our newsletter, yet only a small fraction of our readers have contributed to Global Research. We are deeply indebted to those people who have already made contributions. We are now asking the remaining 99%, can you help us?
