“Even the official definitions of the corona virus, I can quote Anthony Fauci, or I can quote the CDC, or the WHO....The definition is such that it is not a life threatening disease by any means!”

- Professor Michel Chossudovsky (from this week’s interview)

Now that U.S. President Joe Biden declared the COVID-19 “pandemic” over, the shell-shocked citizenry of the planet as they cautiously emerge from their locked down territories and slowly remove the masks from their faces, the time has certainly come for people to take stock of the nearly three years since this menace has run amok on their neighborhood and their lives.

There are reports of massive bankruptcies, unemployment, famine and food insecurity worldwide resulting from the pandemic. UNICEF estimated 1.6 billion children were affected by the closures of schools.

Suicide rates had gone up. Deaths attributable to drug overdose has gone up dramatically starting in 2020.[1]

Meanwhile, the wealth of billionaires increased! The combined wealth of U.S. billionaires collectively by $850 billion over the seven first months of the pandemic. At the global level, the world's 2,189 billionaires saw their combined wealth go up a whopping $1.5 trillion to $10.5 trillion! [2]

All because of a little virus called SARS-CoV-2?

A sober second look at this situation might reveal that there is more to it than that. Arguably, it was the lockdowns, insider trading and other factors that may have been just as devastating as people collapsing from a virus.

These and other data and analysis have just been released in a new book written by the renowned author and academic Michel Chossudovsky. It is entitled The Worldwide Corona Crisis: Global Coup D'Etat Against Humanity.

A clear and simple to follow condensation of three solid years of research, this 164 page volume, available in pdf form unravels its history, which includes

- a deliberate fear campaign to terrify the global populace into compliance with the wishes of the architects,
- the very flawed approach for diagnosing the virus,
- the corrupt science which played a role in favour of the profits and influence of global pharmaceutical corporations,
- the deliberate smearing of scientists and anyone else who expresses a counter-viewpoint to the dominant COVID narrative,
- the dangers of the vaccines, the vaccine passports,
- digital identities and ultimately even a period of depopulation that may be planned by the powers that be.

Chossudovsky also offers a message of what can be done to arrest this process before democracy becomes a relic of the past as the New World Order truly shines its sinister light on the citizenry of the 99 percent!

The book is available for free on this site as a free download. FREE COPY Click here to download.

After the interview, I will talk in more detail about some of the other important points raised in the book.

Michel Chossudovsky is Founder and Director of the Centre for Research on Globalization in, Montreal, and Editor of Global Research.
