Israel's killing machine raged on Friday, continuing into Saturday. The Palestinian Red Crescent Society (PRCS) said Israeli forces wounded over 290 Palestinians yesterday alone, many seriously - 48 from live fire, 44 using rubber-coated steel bullets.

Hundreds suffered from toxic tear gas inhalation. Maan News said "Israeli forces used Palestine TV reporter and cameraman Sira Sarhan and Hadi al-Dibs as human shields...forcing them at gunpoint to remain in front of their Jeep and tell protesters to stop throwing rocks."

French journalist David Perrotin was brutally assaulted by Jewish Defense League Zionist zealots outside AFP's Paris headquarters. He was beaten with batons.

Lunatics involved tried storming AFP's building, waving Israeli flags, throwing eggs, chanting: "We're coming to get you."

One agitator raved:

"We are here to show support for Israel in our war against the Arabs. Journalists working for organizations like AFP support the Islamic terrorists and that's why we have to fight back."

Friday night, Perrotin twittered he's OK. He thanked everyone expressing support.

On October 21, Luay Faisal Ali Abeid stood on his third floor balcony, displaying no weapon, threatening no one. No clashes were ongoing in the area around his home.

An Israeli soldier opened fire at him without just cause, a rubber-coated steel bullet fracturing his skull and nose, striking his left eye. Surgeons couldn't save it. They had to operate to remove it.

On Saturday, an Israeli security guard murdered a Palestinian teenager in cold blood. He was unarmed threatening no one.

Palestinian medical workers said Israel prevented help from reaching him. He was shot at least five times. Overnight Friday into Saturday morning, dozens of Palestinians were kidnapped - in East Jerusalem, Jenin, Abu Dis, Qabatia and Bethlehem.

Western and Israeli media reports are entirely one-sided. Palestinians are portrayed as knife-wielding terrorists. Most reports are fabricated. The few legitimate ones are blown way out of proportion.

Rampaging Israeli forces and extremist settlers are considered noble defenders. Al Monitor said "(t)he Obama administration is cutting aid to the Palestinians by $80 million in what congressional sources describe as a 'message' to Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas."

It's being reduced from $370 million to $290 million for the fiscal year ending September 30 - following criticism from congressional members, blaming Palestinians for vicious Israeli incitement and premeditated persecution over the past three weeks.

Zionist zealot Rep. Eliot Engel (D. NY) said "(w)e need to dial up pressure on Palestinian officials to repudiate this violence." On October 22, House Foreign Affairs Committee members voted unanimously to punish Palestinians for Israeli high crimes.

Practically the entire Congress one-sidedly supports Israel, no matter how outrageous its crimes - nothing worse than cold-blooded murder, defenseless Palestinians outrageously blamed.

AIPAC demands an end to "Palestinian incitement...Palestinian terrorists are attacking Israelis," it rants.

"Palestinian leaders...exacerbated tensions," instead of accurately saying it's the other way around, Israel entirely responsible, being rewarded by Washington with hundreds of millions more in military aid - supporting its killing machine to spill more blood.

"Palestinians must renew direct peace talks with Israel (to achieve) a real and lasting peace," claims AIPAC - ignoring reality on the ground.

Israel and Washington deplore peace and stability, thrive on endless violence, at all times blame victims for their viciousness.

So-called peace initiatives are dead on arrival every time. They're a waste of time, Palestinians always wrongfully blamed for failure.

Daily NYT reports provide cover for Israeli high crimes. Not a word on horrific Friday's Israeli-instigated violence on defenseless Palestinians explained above.

Instead headlined "Jewish Man Stabbed in Israel by Palestinians as Violence Continues," blaming them for an ongoing "wave of violence."

The entire article highlights claims about Jewish victims, Palestinian terrorists, attackers, assailants. The latest Times propaganda piece cited Israel saying a "Palestinian stabber (was) shot dead."

No Israelis were harmed. No weapons were found. Another accusation repeats the same Big Lie about violent Palestinians, poor Israeli victims. It's hard believing this stuff gets printed - maliciously and willfully turning truth on its head.

Sources are always government or military officials, past or current ones, mostly unnamed, repeating the same old Big Lie, long ago discredited by legitimate news reports and analysts.

Israeli state terror, fully supported by Washington and rogue allies, bears full responsibility for ongoing, earlier and certain future violence against defenseless Palestinian victims.

The Times and other media scoundrels never report what everyone needs to know. Israel's war on Palestinians continues with no resolution in prospect.
