An Israeli representative in the Knesset directly denounced the Israeli military: the IDF cooperates with the terrorist organization Al-Nusra Front in Syria. The Chief of the Israeli army Gadi Eisenko said it was not true that the Israeli army (IDF) is associated with the terrorist organization Al-Nusra Front, after that was proclaimed by the member of the Israeli parliament.

But, Eisenko added that it is no secret that the Israeli army maintains contacts with the "Syrian militias" in order to ensure peace on the Israeli-Syrian border.

What is this all about? In particular, Israeli representative Akram Hasson openly accused the Israeli army of collaborating with terrorists in Syria. "It is no secret that the IDF cooperates with Al-Nusra Front. We were told earlier that Nusra coordinate actions with IDF", said Hasson in an interview for Israel's Channel 2 and was written by Israeli newspaper Jerusalem Post.

He gave the statement at a moment when Al-Nusra Front is trying to take the town Khader in the area of Golan Heights. It is a city of about 25,000 Druze, and Hasson himself belongs to Druza ethnic group.

"We received information from various parties and from the people inside who confirmed to us that Al-Nusra Front is unprecedentedly supported by the IDF . Their fighters take up positions where IDF first bombards the Syrian Army", said Hasson.
