John Bolton is known as the most “undiplomatic” warmonger in Washington.

Today he is advising President Trump on US National Security.

In March 2015, Bolton wrote an article in the New York Times in which he candidly stated:

“To Stop Iran’s Bomb, Bomb Iran”!

More recently in a February 28, 2018 op-ed in the Wall Street Journal, he justified a first strike against North Korea based on the notion of “pre-emption”:

“The threat [from North Korea] is imminent. ... Given the gaps in U.S. intelligence about North Korea, we should not wait until the very last minute.”

It seems President Trump, rather than draining the “swamp” in Washington, is filling it up with blood thirsty vultures that have been patiently waiting for the demise of “American Democracy”!

Reviews

“This book is a ‘must’ resource - a richly documented and systematic diagnosis of the supremely pathological geo-strategic planning of US wars since ‘9-11’ against non-nuclear countries to seize their oil fields and resources under cover of ‘freedom and democracy’.”

-John McMurtry, Professor of Philosophy, Guelph University

“In a world where engineered, pre-emptive, or more fashionably “humanitarian” wars of aggression have become the norm, this challenging book may be our final wake-up call.”

-Denis Halliday, Former Assistant Secretary General of the United Nations

Michel Chossudovsky exposes the insanity of our privatized war machine. Iran is being targeted with nuclear weapons as part of a war agenda built on distortions and lies for the purpose of private profit. The real aims are oil, financial hegemony and global control. The price could be nuclear holocaust. When weapons become the hottest export of the world's only superpower, and diplomats work as salesmen for the defense industry, the whole world is recklessly endangered. If we must have a military, it belongs entirely in the public sector. No one should profit from mass death and destruction.

-Ellen Brown, author of 'Web of Debt' and president of the Public Banking Institute
