John Williams, Vandana Shiva, Bob Chapman, Mickey Huff, and George Katsiaficas are the featured guests on The Global Research News Hour

Host: Stephen Lendman

Dates:

Monday, July 13 – John Williams

Tuesday, July 14 – Vandana Shiva

Wednesday, July 15 – Bob Chapman

Thursday, July 16 – Mickey Huff

Friday, July 17 – George Katsiaficas

Time: 10AM US Central time

John Williams is a consulting economist and editor of the Shadow Government Statistics web site and electronic newsletter. Calling government data manipulated, corrupted, and unreliable, he reverse engineers it for a more accurate assessment of economic conditions.

The global economic crisis will be discussed.

Vandana Shiva is a noted author, physicist, philosopher, ecologist, feminist, and longtime activist for human and civil rights.

She also founded Navdanya to support nonviolent farming, biodiversity, local farmers, and prevent crops and plants from extinction by stopping agribusiness from patenting all life forms to then force-feed GMO foods on everyone – even though eating them risks harm to human health.

Shiva also directs the Research Foundation for Science, Technology, and Natural Resource Policy in New Delhi, India and is an Associate Editor of The Ecologist magazine.

Her current work will be discussed.

Bob Chapman is a longtime market professional who for over 40 years has written articles and analysis on business, finance, economics, and politics and is currently the owner and editor of The International Forecaster, “a compendium of information on business, finance, economics, and social and political issues worldwide.”

The global economic crisis will be discussed.

Mickey Huff is a California-based Professor of History at Diablo Valley College, a Lecturer in Sociology at Sonoma State University, and an Instructor of Critical Thinking and Media Studies at Berkeley City College.

He’s also Associate Director of Project Censored (PC), the media democracy advocacy group. It researches and publishes vital news stories that are “underreported, ignored, misrepresented, or censored by the US corporate media.”

Each year, it ranks the top 25 and publishes them in its yearbook, Censored: Media Democracy in Action. The latest Censored 2009: The Top Censored Stories of 2007 – 2008 can be purchased online at projectcensored.org/store.

What’s new at Project Censored will be discussed as well as current world topics.

George Katsiaficas is a visiting American Professor of Humanities and Sociology at Chonnam

National University, Gwangju, South Korea where he teaches and does research on the 1980s and 1990s East Asian uprisings. He's also a Fullbright Fellow, longtime activist, and author of numerous books, including The Imagination of the New Left: The Global Analysis of 1968.

Rising South Korean right wing extremism and tensions over North Korea will be discussed
