Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva, known simply as Lula, is Brazil's 39th and current president. He represents the Workers Party. Lula held previously two presidential terms, from 2003 to 2010.

Lula has now been in office less than 2 months and has already opened his cards for everyone to see: totally submissive to and controlled by the World Economic Forum (WEF), by Washington, by the WHO and by Bill Gates, one of the key funders of WHO and creator of GAVI.

Just so you know - GAVI, also called the Vaccine Alliance, is the closest ally of WHO's, a so-called public-private partnership registered in Geneva as a tax-free NGO with FULL diplomatic immunity. Yes, nobody could sue GAVI even for the most horrendous frauds and crimes they may commit, or may have already committed.

This is GAVI in corporate terms: Representatives of the International Federation of Pharmaceutical Manufacturers & Associations \(IFPMA\) have one seat on the Gavi Board. The IFPMA represents more than 55 members of national industry associations, including Johnson & Johnson, GlaxoSmithKline, Merck & Co., Novartis, Sanofi Pasteur, the vaccines division of Sanofi-Aventis and Pfizer. See this for more on GAVI.

Just a few of days ago Lula declared that for families to remain eligible for the famous Bolsa Family Program (BFP), a social program for the poorest of the poor families, they must vaccinate their children - and he referred specifically to the covid vaxx - otherwise they lose their benefits.

BFP transfers have health and education conditionalities. Beneficiaries with children under age 7 must ensure that the children receive the eleven vaccines included in the Brazilian immunization schedule. The covid "vaccine" is explicitly included in the mandatory children's vaccination program. Lula stressed in particular Covid vaxxes as a necessity to remain in the BFP.

In other words, either you inject your children with this toxic, potentially deadly mRNA concoction, or you may starve to death.

Lula, as a member of the Workers Party, ran for President under the socialist ticket and he “won” as socialist. Whether he really won is highly questionable. Lula had 50.8% of votes compared with 49.2% for the incumbent Bolsonaro.

Such a paper-thin margin would normally more than justify a recount. But the “system”, those who have the last say on Brazil’s new presidency, Washington, the WEF, WHO, Gates – and all those invisible financial mega-powers directing those executing institutions, those who have a vital interest in Brazil and her extensive resources, including the wealth of Brazil’s rain forest – would not allow a recount. Lula is their “boy”.

Bolsonaro was “warned” about launching a coup. Though, a former high-ranking military – he had the support of the army.

The BFP was initiated during Lula’s first presidency (2002-2006), by merging existing social programs into the Bolsa Family Program. Lula is credited with lifting some 20 million Brazilians out of poverty with this and other social reform initiatives. Already under the first BFP, compulsory schooling of children and vaccination were BFP-eligibility criteria. However, at that time there was no toxic and potentially fatal mRNA “covid vaxx” on the market.

During his 2019 – 2022 presidency, Jair Bolsonaro improved the BFP and transformed it to become the “Auxilio Brazil” – Brazil Assistance Program. The new Auxilio Brazil included a permanent upward adjustment of 20%, as compared to the amount paid by Bolsa Família. It also abolished the vaxx conditionality.

“Auxilio Brazil” affected 56% of Brazil’s population \(during the Covid Crisis\) and became Latin America’s most effective poverty alleviation program, surpassing even the hitherto most lauded Mexican social benefits program, reaching some 25% of Mexican families.

With Lula’s arrival, his original Bolsa Family Program was back on the agenda. This time with even stronger conditionalities dictated by WHO – and of course, the Gates Foundation – strongly supported by the WEF and the Biden Administration. In fact, Lula’s first trip abroad as “new” old president was to Washington DC, where he could be seen in a number of Biden-hugging photo-ops. That alone speaks volumes.

Lula’s stern position on children’s covid vaxxing may also have to do with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) declaration of 9 February 2023, officially adding the COVID-19 vaccinations to its recommended child and adolescent immunization schedules.

It is alarming that children may now be subject to these “recommendations” which could easily turn into school mandates around the world (see Brazil), despite serious safety concerns including myocarditis, heart attacks, blood clots, seizures and even sudden death in children.

See this from Children’s Health Defense.

And the bulldozer keeps rolling, despite the fact of Pfizer’s and other pharma’s recognition that the experimental vaxx does not prevent the “covid disease”, nor stop it from spreading and that it might have serious side effects.

No question on who calls the shots in Brazil.

Just as a byline, this will, no doubt, also be the case for Brazil's economy – Wall Street, World Bank and the IMF will be in the driver's seat.

Already during Lula's first two presidencies, Wall Street made the major decisions affecting Brazil's economy, to the point where the IMF lauded Lula as a "good learner", who might become an excellent example for the rest of Latin America.

Today the situation is much more serious as children's lives are seriously at stake. This newly, I call him "pseudo-elected" president, may have just become one of the most flagrant traitors of Brazil's population, particularly Brazil's children – the future generations – and maybe way beyond the Brazilian borders.
