

Make 2013 a Year of Peace

By Global Research and Global Research

Global Research, January 01, 2013

A new year is upon us, a chance for a fresh start, for real change.

This year, add Global Research to your list of resolutions — make a promise to yourself to stay informed and be aware.

Visit us often, share the articles, engage in meaningful dialogue, take steps toward real understanding.

“Global Research is a superior website with critically original research on issues and problems of global significance that is impossible to match elsewhere. It provides a unique combination of soundness of analysis and depth penetration beneath the ruling fields of propaganda around us. My experience is that people from across the world read the Global Research site from Harvard to Hong Kong.”

If you are in a position to make a donation to Global Research, we ask that you help us start 2013 by showing your support for independent media.

We are able to maintain our activities thanks exclusively to your contributions — no corporate or foundation funding will ever dictate our agenda. Our commitment is to the truth, and so we choose to stay independent and fight against mainstream media lies entirely through the support of our readers, people who value the truth over lies.

Please help us make 2013 a year of peace by making a donation to Global Research.
