This is an outrage!

Sixteen people killed in cold blood by the Mexican Federal Police; unarmed people of an auto-defense movement - in January 2015; just discovered by a team of investigative journalists.

Mexicans well remember the mass killing of 43 Ayotzinapa students of last September, unarmed students of a college that caters to the rural poor, who were protesting the government's education reform which would make school unaffordable for the poor. Their killing was provoked by the police in connivance with drug cartels.

An outrage - tolerated and even supported as an oppressive action against anybody seeking their rights - by Mexicans highest authorities.

Such oppressive police tactics around the globe are clearly the result of the violent police conduct in the US, either directly by training, or indirectly influenced by their brutal behavior - 'if the empire can, we can too'.

While he professes the contrary, targeted police killings, allegedly to fight drugs, but with the real purpose of suppressing dissent, has increased drastically since the neoliberal President Peña Nieto took office in 2012.

Mexicans need to know that their police has been trained by the United States of America, the country that screams freedom and liberty at every corner of the globe - lies and deceptions, everywhere one looks; the most abusive and criminal nation in the world; the only rogue nation over the last 100 years, indeed an 'exceptional nation', as Obama and his cronies like to think of their country - a government dominated by an elite of hypocrites, supported by an equally murderous media which has prostituted its commitment to truth for lies and falsehoods to the elites of empire.

The criminal behavior of police and military forces throughout the world is the direct or indirect product of the US. They train armies and police in their 'client' states to assure oppression whenever there is a chance that people may claim their civil rights. This is what empire does.

The police chief in charge of the squadron that murdered the 16 unarmed protesters in January, as well as the one responsible for the Ayotzinapa killings, were nominated and are supported by President Enrique Peña Nieto. The President himself was literally implanted by empire, because Peña Nieto would not have been elected by Mexicans, an honest and noble people, other than by fraud - fraud paid for, planned and instigated by Washington. Only a puppet 'authority' can tolerate these murderous acts against unarmed people, and only because he knows he has support at the highest level – actually at the level of Washington.

Mexicans – be aware!

Latin Americans all over the Sub-Continent BEWARE!

Look at Europe! – The Old Continent dotted with puppets, with stooges of Washington; non-leaders that are drawing Europe into misery, first with lies; if that doesn't work, the atrocious boots of NATO will follow, either as an armed direct intervention, or as one instigating a war with Russia which will undoubtedly unfold in -where else – Europe. That would be the third time in 100 years – wars provoked by the Anglo-Saxon empire – and Europe reduced to rubble – to be rebuilt by empire to fuel its economy.

Latin America ! – Don't follow the path of Europe. Stay your own course.

President Obama is just about discovering that he has 'neglected' his 'backyard' – and now is doing everything possible to take it back, including by training your sovereign countries' police and army. Just look at Venezuela, look at the threats- some tacit some direct, but all real – on Bolivia and Ecuador, on Brazil; all hidden as local subversions or disguised as the uncovering of corruption. These activities are the brainchild of nefarious Washington 'think tanks' (sic) which are planning to dismantle and destroy the social developments that have taken hold over the last 15-20 years throughout the sub-continent of Latin America and the Caribbean, the only population and societies, other than those of China and Russia, that have resisted the merciless onslaught of empire throughout the world.

Brothers in solidarity, don't let your achievements, often dearly paid for with blood, be taken away. They are yours to stay! Don't fall into traps of lies, deceptions and aggression.

Take back your countries where they have been taken over by empire.

Empire will not let go – until and unless it is defeated. And defeated it will be. It is gradually sinking into internal disarray and into international discredit; into an abyss of darkness, from where only ashes will rise.
