Song Lyrics

Fire it burns in your soul, Fire it lights up your heart,
You oppressed all over the world, Something is calling move on,

Here and now in your own land, Here and now justice to demand,
The fire, the water, the burning desire, For a world that meets the needs and rights of all -
stand tall,

This old world has to go, Like the kings who hoarded the gold,
It’s the few who rule over the whole, It’s the whole to rule over the new,

Here and now in your own land, Here and now justice to demand,
The fire, the water, the burning desire, For a world that meets the needs and rights of all -
stand tall,

Love it fills up your soul, Love it lifts up your heart,
Not of one, of a few - but for all, This Humanity breaking down walls,

Here and now in your own land, Here and now justice to demand,
The fire, the water, the burning desire, For a world that meets the needs and rights of all -
Move On!
