Behind the Curtain

When you are ready
And the day dawns
Remember how love
Wraps you in its arms
And the sweet sound
Of grace lifts you up
Lighter than a feather
And places you onboard
The silent ship that sails
Calmly out to sea.
Listen To us calling,
“Bon Voyage, Let us know when you arrive”

- Edward Curtin

“Graeme was such a gentle soul - yet a legend in the 9/11 Truth Movement.

The vast body of solid scholarly 9/11 evidence that he developed for all of us has been deeply ingrained throughout all of my 9/11 presentations and interviews.

I always felt a sense of warmth, and awe, when I had occasion to speak with him or – even just to see him.”

— Richard Gage, AIA, Architect

“What a wonderful friend and colleague he has been for many of us.

He was an exemplary truther, professor, scholar and person.

There is much to celebrate about his rich and meaningful life as well as his many contributions across many fields of endeavour including the quest for 9/11 truth.

We shall miss Graeme MacQueen greatly. He has left us with a very important and diverse legacy.

Thank you Graeme, RIP.”

— Tony Hall
