Dear Mr. Novak Djokovic,

Since I will not be able to reach you personally, I am addressing you with an Open Letter.

I am a German scientist and psychologist and have been living in your home country Serbia for more than two years.

For many weeks now, I have been following from here the fear pandemic unleashed worldwide by a diabolical financial “elite” and the compulsion to be vaccinated with a gene-altering so-called vaccine. I was always very curious about your statement and your behaviour as an exceptional Serbian athlete and role model not only for the youth worldwide.

When I read your new statement today in the German newspapers,

“Rather miss trophies than be forced to get a COVID vaccine” (1)

and on BBC:

“I am not against vaccination but would sacrifice trophies if told to get vaccinated.” (2)

I was thrilled and would like to congratulate you on your courage. The whole of Serbia will be proud of you. For me, you are not only a role model for free youth, but for all free people. I wish you all the best in the future.

Yours sincerely,

Rudi Hänsel
