I just arrived home from my visit to Ottawa. The trucker convoy and the support from the public is one of the most beautiful things I have ever seen.

Truckers were making wood-fired pizza, hotdogs, and it was all free.

The camaraderie was palpable and exuberating, as it was on the bridge days before when the truckers passed beneath us.

God Bless these truckers, thank you.

They and we have made a great difference already in terms of elevating the level of awareness of what is actually happening in Canada.
