Mr. Salah Lamrani [pictured left], French teacher of the Romain-Rolland School of Tremblay-en-France (93290), very appreciated by his students and their parents, was arbitrarily suspended from his post on February 11th, 2016, by Isabelle Chazal, HR of the Academy of Créteil, for a period of four months.

This unilateral action was taken following slanderous letters from the FCPE (Federation of parents' councils) and the management of his establishment seriously defaming him and making illegal use of his activities as a blogger.

We ask you to take quick action to lift this unjustified suspension, to call to order the management of the school and allow students to be reunited with their teacher who they sorely miss, so that the school community can regain the serenity necessary for success of its mission.

Editors note: you can review the whole case, with all its lurid details on Salah Lamrani's blog, updated daily, Sayed Hasan
