

Qatar Accepts to Pay $20 Billion for Reconstruction of Syria, Turkish Spy Agency Supports Al Qaeda Affiliated Rebels

By Global Research News

Global Research, November 04, 2013

Fars News Agency

Region: Middle East & North Africa

Theme: US NATO War Agenda

In-depth Report: SYRIA

Turkish MP Calls on Erdogan Gov't to Change Policy on Syria

TEHRAN (FNA)- Most of the advocates of military aggression against Syria have accepted the necessity for the political settlement of the Syrian crisis, a Turkish legislator said, urging the government of Prime Minister Recep Tayyip Erdogan to change its hostile policies towards Syria.

"I have seen some documents showing that the government of Erdogan and the Turkish spy agency are cooperating with the terrorist groups in the Syrian territory," Rafiq Ar Yilmaz told FNA in Ankara on Sunday.

Noting that most of the supporters of war on Syria have now resorted to peaceful solutions to the crisis in the country, he said, "The Qatari government has accepted to pay $20bln for the reconstruction of the Syrian state since it seeks to take its feet out of the Syrian issue and this has also been raised in a meeting in Iran too."

The Arab countries have followed the US and revised their policies on Syria after all their betrayals of the country, Yilmaz said, adding, "The Ankara government has many times received warnings to revise its policy on Syria because Turkey has been left alone in the Syrian issue."

Turkey has widely been criticized for its interference in the internal affairs of neighboring Syria.

In relevant remarks in July, a senior Turkish politician lambasted Erdogan for his interfering policies in Syria, saying his approach encourages civil war in the Muslim country.

"Prime Minister Erdogan's policy for changing the Syrian government will yield no result but exacerbating the bloody civil war in the country," Deputy Head of Turkey's National Movement Octay Uzturk told FNA at the time.

"Turkey alone is never able to infiltrate in Syria or change the country's ruling system," he added.

Turkey is among the countries that support militants inside Syria. Ankara provides military training for anti-Damascus militants along its borders with Syria.

In recent months, thousands of the Turkish people took to the streets in different cities to protest against their government's interference in Syria.

Demonstrators shouted anti-government slogans and held placards holding Erdogan's ruling AKP Party responsible for a possible genocide in Syria.

The original source of this article is Fars News Agency
Copyright © Global Research News, Fars News Agency, 2013

Comment on Global Research Articles on our Facebook page

Become a Member of Global Research

Articles by: Global Research
News

Disclaimer: The contents of this article are of sole responsibility of the author(s). The Centre for Research on Globalization will not be responsible for any inaccurate or incorrect statement in this article. The Centre of Research on Globalization grants permission to cross-post Global Research articles on community internet sites as long the source and copyright are acknowledged together with a hyperlink to the original Global Research article. For publication of Global Research articles in print or other forms including commercial internet sites, contact: publications@globalresearch.ca www.globalresearch.ca contains copyrighted material the use of which has not always been specifically authorized by the copyright owner. We are making such material available to our readers under the provisions of "fair use" in an effort to advance a better understanding of political, economic and social issues. The material on this site is distributed without profit to those who have expressed a prior interest in receiving it for research and educational purposes. If you wish to use copyrighted material for purposes other than "fair use" you must request permission from the copyright owner.

For media inquiries: publications@globalresearch.ca