People are waking up.

Art is being applied to protests. As very well demonstrated in Germany the Netherlands and Denmark - see video "Lockstep" Protest Marches in Netherlands, Germany, Denmark (4 December 2020).

It is not without reference tongue-in-cheek to the 2010 Rockefeller Report which foresaw and planned as the first phase of their deliberate "Human Transformation" - the Lockstep scenario.

The transformation as we now know, is planned to be nothing less than a modification and digitization of the human genome, robotization of our brains - so as to gain total control over the population - those that are left of us, after the UN agenda 2021-2030 is fully implemented.

It also includes digitization and full control of human finances - the entire financial system - and our - people's - by then meager incomes, will be digitalized in some bank deposits controlled by Mega Banks, with only limited access our own accounts and money. That's the plan; it's not reality - yet - and we will make sure that it never becomes reality.

According to their plan, the Great Reset, (WEF, "Covid-19 - The Great Reset" by Klaus Schwab and Thierry Malleret, July 2020), Covid-19 is THE window of opportunity for the world to be reset with an ultra-capitalism that finally brings justice to humanity and the environment. No kidding, that's what they pretend, and worse, believe that we, the People, will go for it, watching how their - the Cabal's - takeover unfolds.

Among many human rights abuses and disasters, the Great Reset foresees, for example, that the use of our earned resources will be at their mercy, depending on our behavior. If we behave the way the Cabal desires; if we submit to the wishes of the Dark Deep State, call it also the Shadow Government - (picture, "Enemies of the People") the Network of oligarchs that controls all 193 UN member states plus the UN itself - only then may we use our own income for purchases that are offered to us.

According to the various WEF papers, even that might be questioned, as there might be shortages - artificially generated shortages of mostly food and health-support items.

That's the plan. But will we allow them to implement it? - See this, this and this.

A distinct disclaimer is in order: What is described above is the Cabal's plan. It's a plan of darkness. It is a plan of the West. The Eastern alliances, Russia, China and the wider Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO) are, so far, outside of the realm of the Cabal. Although the Cabal, or the Shadow Government, would like to eventually rule over the entire world - and currently makes believe that their goal will be met.

But China and Russia and their SCO coalition - are on another trek.

They are planning a multi-polar world, with an economic model (for example the Chinese Belt and Road Initiative - BRI, also called the New Silk Road) that strives for a better distribution of resources, for more equilibrium of human societies, of civilization as we know it and a world in which trade is "fair", meaning a "win-win" transaction, where all partners win equally. This eastern block of collaboration encompasses not only about 2.5 billion people, but also a third of the world's GDP. "Absorbing" them into the Cabal's evil pursuit is a challenge darkness may be unable to master.

Light will overcome darkness.

Why would someone or some organization, or quasi and make-believe organization (the legal status of the WEF is no more than that of a NGO registered in a lush suburb of Geneva, Switzerland) give away their sinister secrets to be implemented over the next ten years? - Perhaps to scare everybody who reads it and distributes it for more people to read (the multiplier effect) into anger and frustration, into the same darkness from where it was written and supposedly orchestrated.

It is difficult for people who read the Great Reset and its White Paper Implementation Agenda not to get upset, angry, and perhaps even revengeful. Therefore, this clever move of publishing this fear-inflicting paper – is intent to bring a number of anti-Reset intellectuals onto a low-low level of spiritual vibration, same level as those who wrote and imagined the Great Reset. Vibrating on low level is vibrating in darkness – supporting them, exactly the opposite of what we, the awakened opposition want.

Instead of manifesting our anger and frustration, we might want trying to just recognize the diabolical plan, but move forward without anger – with our own ideas, creating our own new, better and more just future, not one being imposed by the Cabal. Connecting spiritually with each other – as has happened already on numerous occasions – and applying civil disobedience all over the globe, simultaneously, similar to what the “lockstep” protesters did in Germany, the Netherlands and Denmark – see above. We can do it. Stop this madness. Spiritually coordinated determination, applied simultaneously, worldwide.

In the last 9 months, the world economy was destroyed to the core of its bones. Unemployment has become uncountable and rampant, possibly up to 2.9 billion people, according to the International Labor Office (ILO), reaching about half of the world’s work force. Poverty and misery are oozing from all corners in the Global South, were up to 70% of employment is informal. Misery is also rising in the ever-growing slums of cities in the Global North. Overall despair, hunger, the lack of social safety nets and suicide have already by now claimed way more deaths than covid did and ever will.

The system that has prepared itself before our eyes – is called GLOBALIZATION – and it is about to reach its final stages within the next few years. All is minutely planned to be implemented by the end of the decade of the twenties – by 2030. Its’s also called the UN Agenda 2021 – 2030. And this sinister agenda has much more in mind than a global corona plandemic.

Remember how the final dry run started – with Event 201, simulating the Virus SARS-CoV-2, later it was conveniently renamed by WHO as Covid-19.? – Almost like a Swiss clock on the midnight toll of December 31, 2019 the corona “outbreak” started the Decade of the 2020s. Wuhan, China, was the official beginning. The truth of that outbreak, how the virus got to China, is a “well-guarded secret”, with many options.

That’s just a demonstration for how well it all has been planned. Thousands of pages have been written about it in the course of this incredible year 2020. Some may be seen here, here and here.

It may be important to note – especially for all Eastern readers, that although the Great Reset and other planned world take-over gimmicks is meant for the entire world – i.e.

towards a One World Government, and the critique expressed here is addressing these plans, but it is clear that Russia and China, and especially their strong alliance with the Shanghai Organization Cooperation (SCO) and other eastern alliances are excluded from the critique. If anything, these countries, especially China and Russia are seeking and working for a multi-polar world, a world that may bring us closer to an equilibrium, where trade among countries is based on shared benefits - not like the west likes to think: "The winner takes all". This is an important distinction.

Again, we, the People, have the power to stop it, by radically DEGLOBALIZING.

How? - Remember how we lived 60 / 70 years ago? Most of the countries had some degree of self-sufficiency which they wanted to preserve. Trade was limited mostly to neighboring countries or countries that shared the same ideology - and it was mostly a friendly or "fair trade", a trade where both partners were "winners" - trade was much more based on national comparative advantages, thus, complementing each other. This basic rule applied both in the Global North and the Global South.

Can we jump forward to 60 years ago?

Then came the Washington Consensus - a semi-clandestine meeting in Washington DC, in the second half of 1989, of the world's financial giants, the instruments of the Cabal, or the Shadow Government, The Federal Reserve / Treasury, International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank. The latter two, though created under the Charter of the UN are fully controlled by the United States.

There was no WTO 60-70 years ago. WTO was created on 1 January 1995 as a western initiative.[an illegal agreement which was not fully ratified by national parliaments] Ever since it has been distorting world trade and punishing poor countries for being poor, by exploiting them for "credits" and "loans" from the infamous IFIs or International Financial Institutions, like the World Bank and IMF.

Back in the 1950's and 1960s most of the nations preserved their political, monetary and fiscal sovereignty - with their own currencies, local banking systems and a central bank that actually was still controlled by national authorities. This was true in most cases in the Global North - not in all. And it did not apply in the Global South, where, for example, in West and Central Africa, their monetary system and central banks were then and today are still controlled by the former (and new) colons, the French.

Can you imagine? - A West African country, say the Ivory Coast, cannot freely dispose of its reserves, because they are controlled by the Banque de France (the French Central Bank) - and this still today. An aberration hardly anybody talks about - but which, in our effort to right a dystopian world, has to be corrected. West African leaders, like Thomas Sankara of Burkina Faso (1983 to 1987) - often referred to as the Che Guevara of Africa - was assassinated by orders of the French Government, then led by Mr. François Mitterrand, a so-called socialist President - yes, you read correctly - a "socialist" - because if President Sankara would succeed to free Burkina Faso from the fangs of the French Central Bank, all other West and Central African former (and renewed) colonies of France, risk to go the same way.

Deglobalizing - radically deglobalizing to the level where we were in the 1950s and 1960s, when we lived well and when we lived within the confines of what Mother Earth was generously offering mankind. In a new old world, we might still keep technological advances that serve societies, however without abusing the environment by a non-stop consumerism.

There is a relatively simple formula – “local production, for local consumption with local money and local public banks and a sovereign national central bank that works for the wellbeing of the national population.” – The challenge may be – how to break loose from the fangs of corporate globalism, into which we have let ourselves being seduced – with lies and greed – and more lies of better lives. We have accepted – and even elected – corrupt leaders who promised heaven on earth. And so, we let ourselves be driven step by step closer into the slavehood of transnational corporations.

Today Mother Earth is vastly over-exploited and most of our western societies are mired in greed and egocentricity. In short, no doubt, we are committing massive suicide – economically, politically, and especially psychologically — by 2050 / 60 – if not way before – we are nothing more than slaves, electromagnetically charged “gnomes” dancing to the orders and the tunes of a small global elite – the very same Cabal – the Dark Deep State – that is behind WEF’s Global Reset.

Of course, people – like Klaus Schwab, the founder of the World Economic Forum (WEF), plus all the governments leaders and parliamentarian and scientists who dance to the orders of the Cabal and keep repeating the official narrative, they are promised to be royally rewarded, or else, if they try to resist – will be unroyally sanctioned... whatever that may encompass. Sort of a “carrot-and-stick” approach. Very usual for a dystopian civilization – what we are.

People start understanding what is happening, because they are connecting the dots. Knowledge is a must, but anger and disgust towards the perpetrators behind the curtains is nefarious. The more we focus on the Cabal’s horrifying agenda – the more we help them implement it. Their negativism is matched by ours of hate. As we focus on them, their diabolical agenda, we too are putting our minds into low-vibrations – because that’s what this is – “The Great Reset” – the One World Order – that’s the lowest vibration of darkness there is.

Those who are awakened, are already vibrating on a much higher level. Instead of concentrating on the evil agenda of the Cabal – and they know that we know that their agenda is evil – we may simply choose our own way forward – into a future that sustains – not destroys – Mother Earth, and humanity, a future that solidifies humanity in solidarity. We are 99.999% – they are 0.001%.

Deglobalize with local production for local markets and local consumption. In the 2008/ 2009 crisis, small communities in Greece and Spain – and probably more countries, popped up and started their own self-sustained economies, with local money. In the US this very moment there are many communities and groups of communities working with their own-created money – yes it still needs to be interchangeable with the going currency – but gradually they achieve more autonomy.

This may be the way to go, until a critical mass can force out the coopted governments and elect their own people’s governments – which will lead the way forward, – into a New, Old World, as much as possible self-sufficient – and trading with neighbors and like-minded other nations – to gradually achieve what we had 60 / 70 years ago – a world in respect of Mother Earth, a world where freedom of expression, open political debates, free media and where political and financial sovereignty was the pride of a nation.

Call it patriotism, call it self-made autonomy – or call it simply the power of self-determination. There was a fresh air of a sense of happiness in people’s souls – which has gradually and purposely been replaced by fear, anxiety frustration – by those emotions emanating from an ever-stronger take-over by Big Money, Big Consumption, Big-and-Bigger Profit Making – by a world for which “Maximizing Profits” has become the new Ave Maria. This world is sick – is dystopian – it is where we are now.

We have become weak, vulnerable to be manipulated – anxiety is our feeling of life. It’s no longer the joys of life that drives us; its fear – fear from an uncertain future. People in fear are susceptible for cancers, heart diseases – and all kinds of infectious illnesses – and people in fear are ripe for manipulation.

Remember – tyrants don’t create tyranny. Your obedience does.
