America's War Against the People of Korea: The Historical Record of US War Crimes

By Prof Michel Chossudovsky, December 22, 2022

The Korean War (1950-1953) was the first major military operation undertaken by the US in the wake of World War II, launched at the very outset of what was euphemistically called "The Cold War". In many respects it was a continuation of World War II, whereby Korean lands under Japanese colonial occupation were, from one day to the next, handed over to a new colonial power, the United States of America.

Secret Plan Outlines the Unthinkable. America's Post 9/11 Nuclear Doctrine

By William M Arkin and Prof Michel Chossudovsky, December 22, 2022

The geopolitics of America's nuclear doctrine (NPR 2001) are outlined: Russia and the "Axis of Evil", China and the status of Taiwan, Israel, Iran and the Middle East, North Korea. The modalities consist in integrating a new category of nuclear weapons (allegedly safe for the surrounding civilian population) into the conventional war arsenal.

The Hidden History of the Korean War

By Dr. T. P. Wilkinson, December 21, 2022

The only war in the official history of the United State that was lost, was also the first war in which Jim Crow, the apartheid regime created in the US after the Civil War and Reconstruction, was not the policy of the US military. How African-Americans came again to challenge the imperialist war machine in the 1960s cannot be understood without uncovering the decades of silence and deception that have covered the first war the US regime truly lost—although it has never officially ended.

World War I, “An Un-Christian Like Patriotic Fervor”: The 108th Anniversary of the Christmas Truce of 1914

By Dr. Gary G. Kohls, December 21, 2022

108 years ago this Christmas Eve something happened in the early months of the “War to End All Wars” that put a tiny little blip of hope in the historical timeline of the organized mass slaughter that is war. The event was regarded by the professional military officer class to be so profound and so important (and so disturbing) that strategies were immediately put in place that would ensure that such an event could never happen again.

New Breakthrough in Australia-China Relations

By Prof. Michelle Grattan, December 20, 2022

Australia’s relations with China will take another major step forward this week with Foreign Minister Penny Wong travelling to Beijing for the resumption of the bilateral Foreign and Strategic Dialogue, which has been on hold since 2018.

Modi Ignores West’s Sanctions on Russia

By M. K. Bhadrakumar, December 20, 2022

For India, the reorientation of Russian economic diplomacy toward the Asian region presents huge business opportunities. Who would have thought nine months ago that Russia was going to be the largest supplier of oil to India, leapfrogging Iraq, Saudi Arabia and the US?

The Inflation Hoax

By Dr. Paul Craig Roberts, December 16, 2022

The Fed thinks that the inflation is the result of the trillions of dollars of Covid payments that were dumped into the economy. To the extent that this money was simply replacing the lost wages, salaries, and business earnings from the lockdowns, there would be no net addition of money, just a replacement. I don’t have the data on the lost earnings from the lockdowns, but it is obvious that there was a large supply disruption.

Putin Attempting to Prevent a Repeat of the Clinton-Yeltsin Destruction of Russia

By Kurt Nimmo, December 16, 2022

In a speech delivered in 2007, well before the current crisis, Vladimir Putin “reserved his bitterest complaints... for the US drive to expand Nato into former Soviet eastern Europe and for the plans to deploy parts of the missile shield in central Europe. ‘Why do you need to move your military infrastructure to our borders?’” he asked.

How Blackrock Investment Fund Triggered the Global Energy Crisis

By F. William Engdahl, December 21, 2022

The energy crisis is a long-planned strategy of western corporate and political circles to dismantle industrial economies in the name of a dystopian Green Agenda. That has its roots in the period years well before February 2022, when Russia launched its military action in Ukraine.

The War Moves Forward as Outlined by the RAND Corporation on Behalf of the Pentagon. “NATO Is Not Part to the Conflict”

By Manlio Dinucci, December 18, 2022

The United States, the European Union, and other countries have so far “donated” about 100 billion euros of military supply to Ukraine. It is money directly or indirectly coming out of our pockets. This figure is constantly increasing. The European Union will train 15,000 Ukrainian soldiers in two camps in Poland and in another member state.
