By Peter Koenig, June 26, 2024

Australian Prime Minister, Anthony Albanese, and his Foreign Minister, the Honorary Penny Wong, have apparently been working for the last two years diplomatically and discretely with the United States, all the way with President Biden's Office to finally reach this agreement.

Trade War Between Europe and China Is Creeping Closer

By Marc Vandepitte, June 26, 2024

In mid-May, President Biden took the economic war against Beijing to a new height by imposing a slew of new tariffs on Chinese products. We then wondered whether Europe would allow itself to be dragged into a destructive trade war, or whether it would succeed in charting its own autonomous course and building a constructive economic relationship with China.
