DARPA, Insects, Mad Science, and Us: Nowhere to Hide

By Tessa Lena, July 28, 2022

You may think that you have seen it all but here is a great idea. Take some insects, infect them with a genetically modified virus designed to genetically edit mature plants in real time, and release them. Release them into wild and repeat, "it's safe and effective."

Russia to Exit WHO, WTO and Other UN Agencies?

By Peter Koenig, July 28, 2022

According to Russian Duma's Deputy Speaker Pyotr Tolstoy, the Russian Government is evaluating the possibility to withdraw from a number of UN agencies, most visibly WHO and WTO which they consider do Russia more harm than good. This may be particularly the case with WTO which Russia only joined in 2012 after 8 years of negotiations, because WTO allows countries under the western sanctions program to increase tariffs on Russian goods way above the WTO guidelines.

By Matthew Ehret-Kump, July 28, 2022

Compared the great initiatives taken on behalf of freedom and anti-colonialism throughout the past 250 years, today's USA appears to be a strange and foolish creature running roughshod over the dignity of people and nations in a race for mass nuclear extermination.

The Light and Shadows of the Korean Peninsula

By Emanuel Pastreich, July 28, 2022

How many times have I seen an American expert pointing to a satellite photo of the Korean Peninsula at night and remarking that the striking difference between the darkness that envelops North Korea and the bright lights that illuminate South Korea, as well as Japan, symbolizes the insularity, the oppressiveness and the pathetically backward economic state of the North. The obvious point is that the brightly lit South is a model of progress, of technology, of democracy and of free markets.

By Andrew Korybko, July 28, 2022

By Ashoka Mukpo, July 28, 2022

In late March, as Russia's invasion of Ukraine entered its second month, U.N. agencies began to issue dire warnings regarding the world's food supply. The war, they said, was pushing food-insecure countries to the brink of a "devastating" hunger crisis, with the combination of brutal fighting in Ukraine and unprecedented economic sanctions on Russia threatening to disrupt as much as a third of the world's wheat exports.

The Dangers of Military Escalation: Lessons from Vietnam for Ukraine

By Rick Sterling, July 28, 2022

There are similarities today with the US and NATO pouring tens of BILLIONS of dollars in weapons into Ukraine to counter the Russian military intervention. The US and western allies are providing additional support in intelligence and military advice. While there are not yet official US troops (as there were not in Vietnam for the first years), there are special operations and much other military support.
