

Selected Articles: Global Destruction and US Foreign Policy

By Global Research News

Global Research, June 30, 2017

Global destruction is perhaps the underpinning for the US foreign policy. It seeks to destabilize genuine representative democracies so as to install their pseudo/puppet governments. It's the Washington Consensus and they're not ready to give up! What are the implications of their actions? Read our articles below...

A re-built Syria which controls its own central bank and can issue its own currency as it needs with no outside control and no debt to the International Monetary Fund or anyone else, (The most fundamental and essential of freedoms that most western countries have not experienced for at least a hundred years.) which, because of this, is able to offer its citizens, even during the war, free education and higher education, health care and extremely low or non existent utility charges is totally anathema to the real leaders of the western world. (Marcus Godwyn)

U.S. Retreats From Al-Tanf - Gives Up on Occupying South East Syria

By Moon of Alabama, June 30, 2017

The U.S. is giving up its hopeless position at the Syrian-Iraq border crossing near al-Tanf in south east Syria. The U.S. military had earlier bombed Syrian forces when they came near that position but it then found itself outmaneuvered, cut off from the north and enclosed in a useless area.

Washington Has Been at War for 16 Years: Why?

By Dr. Paul Craig Roberts, June 30, 2017

For sixteen years the US has been at war in the Middle East and North Africa, running up trillions of dollars in expenses, committing untold war crimes, and sending millions of war refugees to burden Europe, while simultaneously claiming that Washington cannot afford its Social Security and Medicare obligations or to fund a national health service like every civilized country has.

After US-Backed Bombing Sparks Famine in Yemen, US Media Insists 'US Not the Problem'

By Adam Johnson, June 30, 2017

Not only does Diehl ignore the US's role in supplying arms, giving logistical supporting and even facilitating torture on behalf of Saudi Arabia and its allies in Yemen (a complicity so deep the US State Department itself warned the US could be liable for war crimes), he actually writes, "the United States is not the problem here."

Why the West Will Not and Cannot Let Syria Live in Peace

By Marcus Godwyn, June 29, 2017

The fact that different branches of Islam and above all, the fact that the many Orthodox Christians in Syria live in peace with each other burns the western, fractional reserve, debt enslaving banking elites as holy water burns a vampire.

Ex-Weapons Inspector: Trump's Sarin Claims Built on 'Lie' By Scott Ritter, June 30, 2017

Having defined the creation of the object (the non-existent chemical weapon) and the means by which it was created (the flawed theatrics of the White Helmets), we move on to the third, or formal cause, which constitutes the expression of what the object is.
