Wheel Has Come Full Circle in Myanmar

By M. K. Bhadrakumar, August 16, 2023

If the past is any guide, the military leadership in Myanmar has either been talking to Suu Kyi behind the scenes or is hoping to re-engage her in a meaningful conversation. The fact that Thailand's foreign minister Don Pramudwinai paid a secret visit to Nay Pyi Taw three weeks ago and met with Senior General Min Aung Hlaing and Suu Kyi in prison suggests pivotal undercurrents.

By Dr. William Makis, August 16, 2023

I started reporting on sudden deaths of Canadian teenagers in November 2022, when I started seeing them on a frighteningly regular basis. Now we are seeing teenagers die suddenly in all the highly COVID-19 vaccinated countries. By Dr. Rudolf Hänsel, August 15, 2023

Camus's history of influence goes far beyond literature. As a representative of French atheistic existentialism, he not only influenced thinking in the last century about the basic questions of human existence, the role of intellectuals and the individual's commitment to freedom and justice, he still offers fundamental orientation today. He has taken into account the research results of scientific depth psychology.

By Prof Michael Hudson and Steven Grumbine, August 15, 2023

What Is Happening in Syria?

By Philip Giraldi, August 15, 2023

Which are the governments generally regarded as “rogue” by an overwhelming majority of the world’s nations? Historical Analysis: Zionism and Israel

By Dr. Vladislav B. Sotirović, August 15, 2023

This Zionist movement was to a great extent expressed as a consequence of the European (mostly West European) anti-Semitic (better to say anti-Judaic) sentiments and politics that the (West) European Jews were experiencing for centuries.[ii] Zionism as a political-national movement was formally initiated by Theodor Herzl (1860–1904) at the World’s Zionist Conference in Basle (Switzerland) or the First World’s Zionist Congress held from August 29 to 31st, 1897 attended by 208 delegates and 26 representatives of the press.
