Do the American People Want an “Extremely Careless” President? FBI Director James Comey’s Statement On Hillary Clinton’s Emails.

By Prof Michel Chossudovsky, July 06 2016

We bring to the attention of our readers the full text of FBI director James Comey’s statement concerning Hillary Clinton’s emails. No criminal charges against Hillary Clinton. That was to be expected. Political pressure was exerted on both the FBI and the Justice Department.

Tactics of minimisation have been central to Hillary Clinton’s political career. When stumbling takes place, go for the established book of deflection rules. When violations of the law take place, explain that it was normal at the time.

No aspirant for high public office in US history is more despicably unworthy and dangerous - scandal-ridden, irreparably tainted, criminally culpable, a global menace if she succeeds Obama.

[“If the FBI Doesn’t Recommend Charges, Then She \[Clinton\] Didn’t Break Any Law.” \[??\]](#)

By Eric Zuesse, July 06 2016

That seems to be the opinion of the majority of reader-comments at reddit. In response to an article that presented six U.S. criminal laws which clearly describe the most basic aspect of Secretary of State Hillary Clinton's email operation, and some of which U.S. laws specify up to 20 years imprisonment for it, the overwhelming opinion of commenters at reddit has been that if the FBI doesn't recommend that the case regarding Clinton be pursued in court, then she should be (for all intents and purposes) considered and treated by voters to be innocent in the matter.

It is hard to imagine how one person could do so much wrong and never once be charged with a crime. Even worse she was elected to the U.S. Senate, was nominated to be Secretary of State and confirmed to be Secretary of State by the U.S. Senate. Now she is about to be "anointed" the President of the United States of America by the Democratic National Committee and Obama in spite of the fact that she is the subject of two FBI criminal investigations.
