A Poem for Christmas: Christmas Revels \(1838\)

By Caoimhghin Ó Croidheáin, December 19, 2022

The Irish artist Daniel Maclise (1806–1870) was a well known artist of the nineteenth century and he painted many scenes featuring British and Irish history. His painting Merry Christmas in the Baron's Hall (1838) was eventually purchased by the National Gallery of Ireland in 1872. This festive work contains many figures of various ranks and degrees and depicts aspects of the declining traditional Christmas festivities of his time.

Erdogan Jails His Main Rival in the 2023 Election

By Steven Sahiounie, December 18, 2022

Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan faces a tough re-election vote in six months. His rival, the Mayor of Istanbul Ekrem Imamoglu, is very popular and far ahead in the polls. Erdogan went back in time to find an obscure statement made by Imamoglu in 2019 which Erdogan used to order the Turkish courts to try Imamoglu on the charge of 'insulting electoral officials'.

Aussies Go 100% Coal! Imagining Life Out from Under the Climate Cloud

By William Walter Kay, December 18, 2022

The real tragedy is what we don't see. We see billions squandered on wind and solar. Tragic enough, but we don't see the magnificent electrical infrastructures coal might create if similarly furnished with funds.

Xi of Arabia and the Petro Yuan Drive

By Pepe Escobar, December 18, 2022

It would be so tempting to qualify Chinese President Xi Jinping landing in Riyadh a week ago, welcomed with royal pomp and circumstance, as Xi of Arabia proclaiming the dawn of the petroyuan era.

'Disability Culture' and the Allure of Victimhood

By Ben Bartee, December 16, 2022

The "Oppression Olympics" - the victimization hierarchy in which more extreme victimhood equals higher social status - is an odd outgrowth of the wider helicopter-mom, "everybody-gets-a-trophy," "Nerf-the-world" culture that saturated everything circa the 90s. It proliferated from there under the guises of "tolerance" and "equity."

White House Summit with African Leaders Result in More Promises

By Abayomi Azikiwe, December 16, 2022

During the December 13-15 White House-Africa summit, the Biden administration sought to persuade leaders and officials from 49 states that the United States wants an equal partnership with the continent. This was the first of such meetings since 2014 when the administration of former President Barack Obama was in office.

The Pentagon Budget Normalizes War

By Robert C. Koehler, December 16, 2022

Two dogs walking. One of them says to the other: “I bark and I bark, but I never feel like I affect real change.” This is the caption of a New Yorker cartoon by Christopher Weyant from several years ago. It keeps popping up in my head — I mean, every day. Like everyone else, I want what I do to matter, to “effect real change.” What I do is write. Specifically, I swim in the infinity of possibility. Humanity can kill itself or it can learn to survive. Most people (I believe) prefer the latter, which is all about discovering how we are connected to one another and to the rest of the universe. This is what I try to write about.

“Israeli Exceptionalism” Is a Canadian Value that Forgives Apartheid Israel All Its Crimes

By Khaled Mouammar, December 16, 2022

Canada at the United Nations just finalized its vote AGAINST a resolution which affirms the inalienable right of Indigenous Palestinian Semites to the Occupied Palestinian Territories’ natural resources, and demands Israel cease any exploitation, damage, or depletion of them. It passed 159-8.

Putin Attempting to Prevent a Repeat of the Clinton-Yeltsin Destruction of Russia

By Kurt Nimmo, December 16, 2022

In a speech delivered in 2007, well before the current crisis, Vladimir Putin “reserved his bitterest complaints... for the US drive to expand Nato into former Soviet eastern Europe and for the plans to deploy parts of the missile shield in central Europe. ‘Why do you need to move your military infrastructure to our borders?’” he asked.
