By Susan D'Agostino, June 28, 2021

When the United States dropped atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki at the end of World War II, 110,000-210,000 people were instantly killed. Japan surrendered in the days that followed. Not long after, nuclear physicist J. Robert Oppenheimer, who led the Manhattan Project—the research and development program that produced the bomb—was awarded the highest US honor bestowed on civilians for his contribution to the war effort: a Medal of Merit.

The World Says No to the Blockade of Cuba

By Rosa Miriam Elizalde, June 28, 2021

Cuba won another diplomatic victory in the General Assembly of the United Nations this Wednesday against the government of the United States. The majority of countries (184) voted in favor of the resolution which calls for the lifting of the blockade against Cuba. The resolution has been brought to the UN every year since 1992, except in 2020 when the government of Havana was unable to present it due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

By Alejandra Garcia, June 28, 2021

Cuba's new victory over Washington was not news in the US. No head of diplomacy or White House representatives issued any criteria regarding the fact that 184 of the 193 countries that make up the United Nations (UN) voted on Wednesday to end the blockade imposed on the island for almost 60 years.

Dispossession of the Indigenous People's Lands, Missing Children: The Canadian Greenhouse and Genocide

By Kim Petersen, June 28, 2021

This was in response to a plurality of members of parliament in Canada condemning China for committing genocide in the country's Xinjiang province. It was flabbergasting, given that Canada is a state erected on the territory through a dispossession of its Original Peoples by European colonial-settlers. The dispossession was — and is — genocidal.

Sadly China and Russia Remain Quiet on US Past Genocides and Ongoing Genocide in the Middle East & Africa

By Jay Janson, June 28, 2021

Let's begin with acknowledging that officials of the United States of America, its military, its clandestine operating CIA, and personnel within its criminal media cartel have been committing crimes against humanity free of any worry or concern of prosecution.
